PRESIDENT'S REPORT

At a meeting of the Board of Managers of Haverford College held First Month 18th, 1926, the following minute was adopted:

"Our dear friend, James Wood, passed quietly away at his home in Mount Kisco, New York, the 19th of Twelfth Month in the 87th year of his age. He was a member of the Class of 1858, but only remained in College three years, withdrawing in 1857. He received an honorary Master's degree from the College in 1883. He was elected a member of the Board of Managers in 1885 and served continuously until his death, having been for some years senior member. During the period of his strength and activity he was a faithful attender of the Board meetings and showed his interest and insight in all matters that concerned the deeper life of the College. At the time of President Sharpless' resignation in 1892, it was due to James Wood in a larger degree than to anyone else that the resignation was not accepted and that President Sharpless remained to carry through and complete the great work for Haverford which he had at that time only begun. For his wise leadership on this occasion, and at other critical moments in the history of the College, a large debt of thanks is due to James Wood. He has for fully fifty years been a pillar in the Society of Friends and a broad spirited humanitarian and patriotic citizen."

To serve as a Manager during the unexpired term of James Wood, Henry W. Stokes of the Class of 1887 was elected at the Fifth Month meeting of the Board.

The Board has sustained a great loss in the death of John M. Whitall, of the Class of 1880. The following minute was felt to be appropriate and was directed to be spread upon the minutes of the Board of Managers:

"On Fifth Month 23rd, 1926, we lost through death our valued fellow-member, John Mickle Whitall. He was a student at Haverford from 1876 to 1879, and a member of the Board of Managers since 1906. For a number of years he was Chairman of the Executive Committee. He was a frequent and liberal giver to Haverford, following in that respect the example of his father, James Whitall, and his grandfather, John Mickle Whitall, both of whom were also members of the Board. During the last few years his health prevented him from regular attendance at Board meetings, but his keen interest in the College continued, as was indicated by his faithful observance of his appointment to attend Fifth Day Meeting in which he said he was much interested. He strongly favored the policy which has maintained Haverford as a small college, devoted to sound general culture rather than specialized technical subjects."

The present college year has opened auspiciously with a total registration of 247, of whom 78 are Freshmen and 15 are day students. No students have been admitted to advanced standing.

The religious affiliation of the students is thus recorded:

Episcopalians	56
Presbyterians	54
Friends	41
Methodists	26
Lutherans	12
Baptists	11
Congregationalists	11
Jewish	9
Christian Reformed	6
Roman Catholic	5

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Unitarian	5
Christian Scientists	3
Disciples of Christ	2
No religious affiliation	6

	247
Percentage of Friends	16.5

Statistics regarding the Freshman class are as follows: 42 are sons of college men and 36 are sons of non-college men; 26 are sons of professional men and 52 are sons of business men; 8 are sons of Haverfordians; at entrance 37 announced their candidacy for the Arts degree, 41 for the Science degree.

The permanent Faculty has received no considerable additions in numbers since the student body stood at 200. If the advantages of a small college are not to become an empty boast, it is necessary now to provide a larger teaching force in order that our sections of instruction may be kept within bounds. It is generally believed that in courses where personal teaching methods are employed, sections should not exceed 20 to 25 in number. Unfortunately several of our courses have lately exceeded this limit. The pressure of increased numbers has been markedly felt in the required work of the first two years, in Mathematics, in English, and in the foreign languages. Accordingly, an unusual number of new instructors have been appointed this year in an attempt to maintain more individual relations between student and teacher. William A. Reitzel, '22, has been reappointed Instructor in English, with the interesting task of taking complete charge of the Freshman class in English; he will be afforded opportunity to establish close contact with all first year men and to use his judgment in giving them individually that rudimentary knowledge of our language and literature which is the minimum requirement for the Bachelor's degree.

HAVERFORD COLLEGE

Alexander Jardine Williamson, '23, recently returned from a year's study at the University of Toulouse, has been appointed Instructor in French in place of Raymond T. Ohl, '21, who will continue his graduate study in Latin. Dr. Fritz Marti, recently of Goucher College, is carrying most of Professor Jones' work during the latter's absence for the first term on a mission in the Orient. Dr. J. C. Forbes, of McGill University, is assisting Professor Meldrum as Instructor in Chemistry. Frederic M. Wheelock, a graduate student of Harvard University, is acting as Instructor in Latin and Greek. Dr. J. A. Babbitt, who is absent this year on sabbatic leave, will be replaced by Dr. Herbert W. Taylor, '14, in the Infirmary and in the Physical Education Department, while his laboratory work and lectures to the Freshmen will be in charge of Dr. Edward S. Thorpe, Jr., '18. Harry W. Pfund, '22, who has been doing graduate work at Harvard, has been appointed Instructor in German during Professor J. A. Kelly's absence on sabbatic leave. A long cherished ambition to offer instruction in the History and Appreciation of Music has been gratified this year by the appointment of Alfred J. Swan as Lecturer in that subject, offered as an elective course to others than Freshmen. It is hoped that this course may be so effective that we may soon offer a similar course in the History and Appreciation of Art.

The Board has sanctioned an interesting departure from our former practice in allowing the grant of a certain number of scholarships on the Jacob P. Jones Foundation in return for an amount of work to be done by the recipient. This innovation is in line with a similar provision at many other institutions and meets the needs of a certain type of student applicant for financial aid. The Board has also set apart, as an experiment, the annual amount of $2,100 from the income of the same Foundation to form a Loan Fund. It is proposed that loans to the amount of $200, or a total of $500, may be made to individual students who agree to pay 2% interest until leaving college and 6% thereafter for four years, at which time the principal will be due. For 1926-27 a total of $1,400 has been loaned, and it will be interesting to note the future use made of this temporary assistance.

The past year has been marked by a serious attempt to work on the centennial program outlined in the last Report. Some progress has been made upon what seemed the most urgent item on the list of desired objects. The Board sanctioned the proposal to create "The William Penn Foundation for Instruction in Political Science and International Relations" and set a goal of $120,000 as adequate for this purpose. A group of our graduates has been successful in securing pledges of $70,000 to date, chiefly but not entirely from members of the Society of Friends. It is hoped that during the present year this Fund may be completed, and that we shall then be left free to attack other items on the centennial program. Completion of this program before 1933 will give Haverford a new material equipment adequate for half a century, will give Haverfordians a new sense of confidence in the resources and prospects of the College, and will enable the administrative officers of the College to apply themselves to their most important task, namely, the application of our increased resources to the individual needs of each student selected as worthy to benefit by them.

The selection of students has become the great problem of American institutions of higher learning. None of the methods employed is entirely satisfactory if used alone. But a combined use of the past record, of the present specific knowledge by examination, and of the personal interview, ought to give quite a satisfactory basis upon which to admit students. Varying weight may be given to these factors at the discretion of the Faculty representatives charged with the responsibility. It is safe to say that more care than ever before has been expended upon the selection of the new Freshman Class. A large majority of the members of the Class of 1930 have been carefully examined in a personal interview, and their qualities of personality have been weighed in connection with their past record and the written examinations which all of them have taken. Good character, a good mind in a sound body, and seriousness of purpose are the factors of which we seek evidence. A number of men from earlier classes have been dropped permanently or temporarily for having failed to maintain the standards of the College in these respects.

A new situation is likely to arise next year in regard to dormitory accommodations, to which it is well to refer now. The present Senior Class happens to be somewhat smaller than usual, and even allowing for a fair proportion of other withdrawals at the end of this year, it is unlikely that we shall be able to take more than fifty new students in 1927-28, unless our dormitory accommodations are considerably enlarged. For the first time, therefore, we may say with perfect truth that the extension of Lloyd Hall before the opening of another year is highly desirable, if not absolutely necessary. It would be a great advantage from the standpoint of economy if all of this building could be completed at once, thus affording us four new entries to accommodate about forty more students than can be lodged at present.

A very interesting desire on the part of students to participate in questions affecting the curriculum has been recently manifested in other colleges. At Haverford the past year representations were made to the same effect by our students. As a result some discussion ensued between a committee of the Faculty and one representing the students which should result in a better understanding by each of the other's viewpoint. Just how to develop more responsibility in connection with greater liberty is here, as everywhere else, the problem. We do not wish to be hampered by antiquated forms and requirements, if better and more honest results can be secured otherwise. The Faculty has expressed its readiness to examine sympathetically any constructive proposal which should have the general support of the students. To that end the Faculty addressed on Fourth Month 30th, 1926, the following letter to the Curriculum Committee of the Student Council:

April 30, 1926.

*To the Curriculum Committee of the Student Council,
Haverford College:*

At its regular meeting on the 22d inst. the Faculty of Haverford College listened with interest to a detailed report from its special committee concerning the conference recently held with you.

As you undoubtedly know, most of the questions that you raised have been considered by the Faculty from time to time. Some of them have been engaging our earnest attention in recent months and are still a regular order of the day for Faculty and Board of Managers. Some of them involve intricate problems of finance and administration. These can hardly become practical subjects for discussion in open forum.

Yet the fact that the students have taken a definite interest in these problems has given the Faculty a renewed desire to find the right solutions as soon as may be practicable. Some of your suggestions will have our immediate attention.

HAVERFORD COLLEGE

We suggest the propriety, when it may seem advisable, of presenting to the Faculty, after careful discussion of a question, a definite recommendation, with a statement of the vote of the student body. A deliberate judgment of this sort will always carry weight with the Faculty in the settlement of difficult problems.

The most heartening thing of all in the report of our committee was the fact that you came to us in good spirit to ask for genuine, friendly coöperation. This spirit we reciprocate in full measure. Not merely in problems of curriculum, but in everything we can do better by coöperation. It may not always be possible for us to agree in our conclusions. It must always be possible for us to have good understanding.

Cordially,

(Signed) THE FACULTY,
per O. M. CHASE, Secretary.

In the midst of animated discussion regarding the place of athletics in American colleges, we have been able to pursue our even course based upon the theory that organized athletics are but a part of physical training and hence to be indulged in simply as a part of one's education. They must not be allowed at Haverford to become an end in themselves, either for purposes of self-gratification or of publicity. As soon as victory in games becomes a major consideration, some questionable leeway is likely to be granted to those upon whom the responsibility of securing victory is laid. It is gratifying to record that present-day Haverfordians are firmly in accord with the Faculty and all our coaches in a determination to keep Haverford beyond reproach in its standards of amateur athletics. We are willing to continue in the future, as in the past, to develop for our teams through the regular courses in Physical Training young men who shall strive manfully and honestly for victory in our intercollegiate contests. To the high moral influence of our coaches is due not only much of the success we have had, but also this word of the appreciation which is felt for their services by the Faculty. Good work of an executive nature in this connection has also been done by the Executive Athletic Committee, which has been in existence now for several years. This Committee consists of three members of the Faculty, three undergraduates, and three Alumni, one of whom is John R. Hoopes, '21, who serves the College most acceptably in a three-fold capacity as Secretary of the Alumni Association, Assistant to the President and Treasurer of the Athletic Association. All athletic schedules must be approved by him before ratification and all proposals for the expense account must receive his endorsement. Beside much routine work which is rapidly dispatched by the Committee, its members also engage in useful discussion regarding Haverford's intercollegiate relations and commitments.

Moral conditions in the College have been satisfactory on the whole during the past year. The Students' Council has shown a commendable concern to maintain standards of honesty and integrity, which concern is highly appreciated by the responsible officers of the College. Indeed, this development of recent growth is the most encouraging sign of the times in American education. It is not a small thing to know that a substantial body of student opinion will coöperate in trying to keep weak brothers straight and, when mercy has proved unavailing, will endorse strict justice.

Since the papering of dormitory rooms has been completed, the students have responded by excellent care and have spared the Corporation a considerable expense for annual repairs. If this pride in private rooms can be carried over to other College property, it may well be felt that real progress has been made toward the correction of an abuse honored rather by time than by any worthy tradition.

Much comment has been heard this fall regarding the beauty of the College grounds. A rainy season which has played havoc with the roads has had at least the advantage of preserving our lawns and shrubbery in an unusually attractive dress of green. Some improvements may be mentioned: the new 1922 Field was used for the first time last spring for baseball; the Skating Pond house was repaired last fall; the old tool house, west of Chase Hall, has been removed; through the subscription of a group of interested Alumni and friends about $2,000 was raised to repair and buy equipment for the Observatory; the Gymnasium has been entirely re-decorated both inside and outside.

The Board has sanctioned, as recommended, the construction of a substantial fence on the southern and western boundaries of the College property. If these boundaries can later be planted with trees, we shall have a beautiful and effective method of protecting the College property. The Board also authorized the alterations in Roberts Hall which were required by the State law in order to make the auditorium safe for dramatic productions and the showing of moving-pictures. At the same time the eastern elevation of the building has been beautified by a deepening and squaring of the stage. The cost of these alterations, which are now nearing completion, will be about $32,000.

It is satisfactory to report a commendable activity on the part of the Faculty in contributions of a scholarly character. In a small college it is well to emphasize repeatedly the need of continued study and research in cases where the highest academic rewards are expected. However undemonstrative they may be, students are quick to recognize the true scholars in their midst and to do their best work for them. It is hoped that Haverford may continue to produce more than its share of ripe and scholarly contributions to the progress of human thought. It seemed appropriate to include in Haverford's exhibit at the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia a collection of the books written by present members of the Faculty, and the collection proved to be quite impressive.

One of the interesting gifts made to the Corporation during the year was that of the Virginia Cup, a very handsome silver cup presented by Professor Legh W. Reid to the Corporation of Haverford College on Eleventh Month 20th, 1925. In his letter speaking of the benefit of tennis as an exercise, Professor Reid wrote of his desire "to promote interest in it at Haverford College, I have provided . . . a cup to be a perpetual championship trophy to be played for annually by the students of the College." The Cup was gratefully accepted by the Corporation, to be competed for annually under certain conditions set forth in the letter of gift.

A valued addition to our Haverfordiana came with the gift of a collection of early student periodicals and chronicles dating from the first years of the College presented by Miss Hannah Fox.

The Librarian reports as follows:

"The total number of volumes in the Library at the close of the Ninth Month is 101,681. 2,884 new volumes were added to the Library during the year. Of these, 920 were gifts, and 178 belong to the United States document depository collection. Among the many gifts received were:

PRESIDENT'S REPORT OF THE
T. WISTAR BROWN GRADUATE SCHOOL

The work of the T. Wistar Brown Graduate School was satisfactorily continued through the past year. Professor and Mrs. Barrett continued to act as hosts of the Graduate House. This current year, however, Professor and Mrs. Grant will again be in residence there.

Last year the School had seven graduate students in residence, of whom four received the Master's Degree at the last Commencement.

This year has opened with eight students, representing four Friends' colleges. Agnes L. Tierney has kindly consented to give the course of lectures on the History of Quakerism which Dr. Elbert Russell has acceptably given for several years.

Some discussion of the past accomplishments and future use of the Moses Brown Fund has been carried on by the Faculty and Managers' Committee in charge of the School, but no definite conclusions have yet been reached for presentation to the Board.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS

FRANCIS B. GUMMERE MEMORIAL FUND

Founded in 1920. This fund was started by a gift of $25,000 from the late Miss Emily H. Bourne, of New York, conditional upon the raising of $100,000 additional for an endowment of the Chair of English Literature in memory of her friend, Professor Francis Barton Gummere. A committee of alumni, consisting of J. Stogdell Stokes, '89, chairman; E. R. Tatnall, '07, treasurer; Hans Froelicher, '12, secretary; Charles J. Rhoads, '93; Alfred M. Collins, '97; Winthrop Sargent, Jr., '08, and Parker S. Williams, '94, working with President Comfort, organized a comprehensive campaign among the alumni and friends of the College to raise $500,000 for this purpose and for increase of professors' salaries; the first $100,000 of unspecified gifts was used to complete the Francis B. Gummere Memorial Fund to at least $125,000, and the balance comprised the Isaac Sharpless Memorial Fund. Total par value, $149,507.88.

ISAAC SHARPLESS MEMORIAL FUND

Founded in 1920. The alumni of the College conducted during 1920 a campaign for $500,000 additional endowment for the College to make possible additional salaries to the professors. Appeal was made to found two new funds, the Francis B. Gummere Memorial Fund and the Isaac Sharpless Memorial Fund. The funds received, except where otherwise specified, were first applied to the completion of the former up to $125,000 (see above). Specified gifts and donations thereafter received were then applied to the Isaac Sharpless Memorial Fund. The income only is to be used for salaries of professors. Total par value, $230,764.96.

GENERAL EDUCATION BOARD FUND

The General Education Board of New York appropriated $125,000 in 1920 to the campaign for increase of endowment when the Francis B. Gummere Memorial Fund and the Isaac Sharpless Memorial Fund were raised. Interest at five per cent was paid on the full sum for three years, and $122,660.41 principal has been turned over to the Corporation, being pro rata to payments thus far made to the above funds. Total par value, $123,562.91.

HVERFORD COLLEGE

HVERFORD IMPROVEMENT FUND

Founded in 1922 to hold the Corporation's undivided share in College Lane land and eight houses. This property was turned over to the Corporation free of debt on Third Month 17, 1922, and with same the then debt of the Corporation amounting to $155,942.15 was liquidated. The fund started with an undivided interest of $19,000. There was added in 1922, $9,000; and in 1925, $2,000. In 1926, $5,000 of this fund was sold and the proceeds were appropriated for the alterations to Roberts Hall. The balance of this fund will also be required in the next fiscal year for the same purpose. The fund amounted at the end of this fiscal year to $25,000. The income has been used for general college purposes. It is hoped that this fund may be refunded from the Centenary Campaign, a part of which is planned to cover the Roberts Hall alterations.

The College Lane land was purchased in 1886 for the benefit of the College by David Scull, Justus C. Strawbridge, Richard Wood and Francis Stokes, Managers of the College and now all deceased. With contributions raised by them and by mortgages on which they went on the bonds, funds were raised to build six dwelling houses, and two houses were built by the Corporation itself. From the income of the houses the debt against the properties was gradually reduced until it was entirely liquidated in 1919. The net income from 1919 until 1922, when the property was turned over to the Corporation, was applied toward the reduction of the Corporation's debt.

CENTENARY FUND

Founded in 1926 by gifts to the College in anticipation of the one hundredth anniversary of its founding in 1933. There are no restrictions. The income is used for general college purposes. Present par value $602.

WILLIAM PENN FOUNDATION

Started in 1926 toward a fund of $120,000 to establish a chair or lectureship in Political Science and International Relations. JACOB P. JONES
FROM A PAINTING IN THE HAVERFORD COLLEGE DINING-HALL

PREFACE

The following sketch of the donations, ideals, and personality of Jacob P. Jones has been prepared by a committee of the Board of Managers of Haverford College. The material is reproduced with but few alterations from a paper read to the Board on Eleventh Month 16th, 1923, by J. Henry Scattergood, Treasurer, soon after the completion of the sale of the Jacob P. Jones real estate. Much of the material is derived from the History of Haverford College, published in 1892. Since the original contribution was unidentified, it is regretted that credit cannot be given where credit is due. It is felt that this sketch should be printed, and should be an acknowledgment of the great services of Jacob P. Jones to Haverford College, in harmony with the memorial tablet erected in 1926.

JACOB P. JONES

In Sixth Month 1923 settlement was made for the last parcel of real estate belonging to the Corporation of Haverford College through bequest of Jacob P. Jones. The principal of the Trust has now, after twenty-six years, been fully realized with the exception of a few small items upon which no appraised value was ever placed. It seems a fitting time to make report of this, the greatest benefaction ever received by the College, and to refresh in the minds of the present Managers and friends of Haverford the purposes and wishes as well as something of the life and character of the donor.

An excellent account of the life of Jacob P. Jones is to be found in the History of Haverford College, published in 1892. From it the following is summarized:

Jacob P. Jones, the son of Samuel Jones of Philadelphia and Martha Paul of Plymouth, Montgomery County, was born on Second Street near Arch Street, Philadelphia, on Fifth Month 9, 1806. His ancestry was Welsh Quaker on both sides and his parents were strongly attached to the Society of Friends. Much of Jacob P. Jones' boyhood was spent at the family farm near Haddington, Philadelphia, which later through his bequest came to realize so much for the welfare of Haverford College. He was educated at Friends' School, then taught by Elihu Pickering, and a few years before manhood he became a pupil of John Gummere, whose school at Burlington had then attained great prominence.

Soon after leaving school, he visited the principal woollen manufactories of New England, in one of which he became an apprentice and was for a short time engaged in business on his own account. Upon the death of his uncle, Samuel Paul, he found himself bequeathed the Paul family mill and business on the Wissahickon.

The opportunity of at once engaging in a self-supporting business was too tempting to be resisted, and the young nephew at once took up the business which his uncle had hitherto so successfully carried on. Here, on the banks of the Wissahickon, many years were pleasantly passed.

But larger fields of labor opened before him. His life-long friend and neighbor, Israel Morris, of Green Hill (now Overbrook), had commenced business in 1829 as an iron merchant at 16th & Market Sts., Philadelphia, then an unpaved and remote part of the City. In 1836 he invited Jacob P. Jones to join him in partnership and the firm was formed of Morris and Jones, buyers, sellers and importers of iron and steel. In 1847 they were joined by Richard H. Downing and the firm became Morris, Jones & Company. It so continued until 1860 when both of the older partners retired and the firm became Morris, Wheeler and Company. It has been continued to the present time--first by the three sons and now by five grandsons of Israel Morris, and their partners in the Wheeler family. This firm in its early days did more for the successful introduction and manufacture of American bar and sheet iron, in competition with foreign manufacturers, than any other firm in the country.

Success in this and other departments of their business brought its ample remuneration, and in the year 1860 Jacob P. Jones, as stated, retired from active participation in a business to which for nearly twenty-five years he had devoted himself with industry and zeal. This did not, however, mean for him a life of idleness; on the contrary, it was used as affording the opportunity for larger engagements in public and in benevolent work.

For nearly forty years Jacob P. Jones was a Director in the Bank of North America, for more than twenty-five years on the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and Granting Annuities; for many years he was on the Board of the Delaware Mutual Insurance Company and the Western Saving Fund, besides being actively engaged in numerous iron, railway, coal, gas and other companies.

In charitable work he was especially active. He was long and keenly interested in the Young Men's Institute with its branches in different parts of the City; for many years he was a Manager of Preston Retreat, which had been founded by the will of the late Dr. Preston, an uncle of his wife; and for more than twenty years he was a Manager of and generous contributor to the Pennsylvania Hospital, being also a close, intimate friend of the late Dr. Kirkbride.

Jacob P. Jones married at the age of thirty-four on Seventh Month 15, 1840, Mary, daughter of Richard and Sarah Thomas of Chester Valley, Pennsylvania. Two children were born to them, Richard T. and Martha Jones. Richard T. Jones, the son, was a youth of much gentleness of character and with a mind well cultivated. He was graduated from Haverford in 1863, and was warmly attached to the College. The fact that his son was for four years a resident at the College often brought Jacob P. Jones to it, and made him acquainted intimately with its workings, its capacities for usefulness and its needs. A warm feeling of gratitude for the care and training of his only son was even then developed, and the writer of the memoir says that he had often heard him express his grateful appreciation of the uniform kindness and personal interest in his son, of the President of the College, Thomas Chase. This feeling of gratitude deepened still more when that only son was taken from him by death, and there is no doubt that it had much to do in determining the purpose which he later revealed.

RICHARD T. JONES

FROM A PHOTOGRAPH IN THE OFFICE OF MORRIS, WHEELER COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA

Richard T. Jones, the son, entered the office of Morris, Wheeler & Company and threw himself zealously into the work. But his health, never very robust, began to fail, and he was obliged to relinquish his work for a time, at least. In 1868 he married Marie Louise Bailey, of Philadelphia, and the young couple embarked for England on their wedding trip. The hopes entertained of benefit from travel were not fulfilled and the sad duty devolved on Jacob P. Jones and his wife of bringing their dying son home from Geneva. Richard T. Jones lived to reach America, but died on Sixth Month 6, 1869, within a fortnight of his arrival. Great as was this sorrow, other bereavements awaited the stricken parents. Their only surviving child, their daughter, nearly two years later also fell a victim to pulmonary disease. His young daughter-in-law, to whom Jacob P. Jones was tenderly attached, died a few years later, and in late middle life he and his devoted wife were left childless. His only sister had died in early womanhood, and there remained in his desolate home only himself and his sorrowing wife. The agony of the patriarch, whose cry has come down to us through the ages, was theirs: "If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved."

It was indeed an almost crushing blow. Only his most intimate friends who knew the affectionate pride with which he regarded his son, and the tender loving sympathy between him and his daughter, could at all measure the loneliness of heart which came with their deaths. Happily, in this great sorrow, he could turn to the Comforter; and he did so—and found, as other wounded hearts have found, the healing there. And then out of that sorrow came the joy of broader sympathies and of deeper interests in his fellowmen. Perhaps, less active in public business, he was the more interested in his benevolent work; and this showed itself, not only in larger charities, but also in little acts of delicate thoughtfulness for others. Christmas Day, which had been so bright at his own hearth over which the shadow of past memories now sadly rested, was, by his generous care made a happy one for the afflicted in the hospital, and for the poor in their own homes.

A chastened tenderness of heart gave him a gentleness of manner which won the love of all with whom he was associated, and bore for him its rich fruit of gratitude and affection. And this gratitude and affection continued to the end of his days, so that loving friends watched over the sick-bed of this childless man, and soothed his dying hours, with all the care and tenderness of filial devotion.

Though seemingly in good health and looking many years younger than he was, Jacob P. Jones had long suffered from valvular disease of the heart—a condition which greatly complicated an attack of pneumonia, which ended his life, after an illness of only ten days, on Fifth Month 20, 1885, in his eightieth year. "I do not fear death," said he to a relative early in his illness; "I have tried to do justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly; and my trust is in my Saviour." And, with this childlike trust he passed into the presence of Him, whom not having seen, he had yet long loved.

Jacob P. Jones' attachment to Haverford was well known; already he had given $10,000 toward the building of Barclay Hall, and, for some years, had contributed large sums annually to her support. Few of his friends, however, were prepared for the munificent provision made in his will for our College. After numerous legacies to personal friends and relatives, and generous bequests to public institutions, and a legacy of five thousand dollars to establish a scholarship in memory of his son, his will devises, on the death of his wife, the residue of his estate to the corporation of Haverford College, their successors and assigns, in these words: "Having full faith in the tenets of the Christian religion, and entertaining great confidence in the wholesome influence exercised over those who, in their youth, are under the training, care, teaching and example of instructors professing the faith and observing the discipline of the religious Society of Orthodox Friends, it is my desire and request that the above-named corporation shall retain and keep invested the capital of the funds and estate which shall come to them under the residuary provisions of this my will as a permanent endowment fund, and spend and appropriate the income only thereof in carrying out the work and objects of their incorporation.

"And, so far as they may be enabled out of the said income to admit a portion at least of their students or scholars, either free of charge or at reduced rates, I desire that to be done, giving the preference for those who shall be so admitted free or at reduced rates, first to the sons of Orthodox Friends, and extending it afterward beyond that class to others, if the said income be found sufficient and enough of such first-named class shall not present themselves to absorb it.

"In expressing the above wishes I am not to be understood as desiring that the institution shall ever adopt rules which shall exclude children of parents who are not members of the Society of Orthodox Friends from the benefits of their institution. On the contrary, my own views are that the true way to demonstrate the advantages of instruction by Friends is not to adopt the policy of excluding the children of others, as, I fear, has been too much the case in times past. Therefore, so far as my injunction can avail, I trust they will always freely invite such others to the benefits of the institution; and I believe the corporation itself will best prosper and carry out its work by opening its doors freely to all reputable and deserving youth, to whatever religious instruction they may have been subject before being received.

“Neither am I to be understood as imposing any injunction for the application of any further or greater portion of said income toward the furnishing of free or reduced rate instruction, than what there shall be left for application in that manner after the reasonable expenses of the institution shall have been provided for from such income and the other resources of the corporation.

“But my hope is that, under the blessing and favor of God, there will come from this source a revenue which shall be productive of growth and vigor in the institution, as well as help, at this critical period of their lives, to many deserving young men of slender patrimony.”

In the Manager’s Report for 1885, occurs the following:

The Board of Managers have expressed their estimate of the character of our departed friend and the value of his gift by a minute which is appended to this Report, and by placing on their records the full and loving tribute from President Chase which accompanies it.

It is too soon to anticipate the application of this noble endowment, given with so much discretionary power in the use of the income to be derived; but the simple instructions given show that one of the testator’s main objects was to reduce the cost of instruction at Haverford so as to provide for the admission of “all reputable and deserving youths” who seek an education under “its wholesome influences.” It is, therefore, not too soon for those to whom this trust will come to prepare for the larger field upon which the College must enter. If the hope and expectation of our benefactor is to be realized, the Institution must be able to apply the income of this endowment to the purposes he has mentioned as near to his heart.

The following Minute was adopted by the Managers :

AT A STATED MEETING OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE CORPORATION OF HAV-ERFORD COLLEGE, HELD SIXTH MONTH 5TH, 1885:

Information being now received of the munificent bequest of our beloved friend, Jacob P. Jones, the Board accept the intelligence with thankful hearts, and with gratitude to Him from whom all good gifts come, who put it into the heart of this His servant to make such noble provision for the future usefulness of our honored Institution.

It is fitting that we, the present Managers of the College, whom daily life brought—many of us—into frequent contact and intimate acquaintance with this dear friend, should take this opportunity of recording our testimony to his virtues and worth, of acknowledging our obligations to him who, while yet with us, gently put aside, in that sweet, deep spirit of Christian humility which clothed him, our attempts to thank him for the constant evidences of his interest unflinchingly given through many years. He is beyond the reach of our tributes now, but we speak out of the fullness of our hearts, that those who come after us in this trust, which he has so dignified, may know how greatly the value of the gift is heightened by the character of him who gave it.

A man of affairs, of excellent business talents and judgment, whose co-operation was sought by and given to leading business, financial, and fiduciary corporations of our city, and whose influence in all of them was weighty, even those who knew him in these relations chiefly were conscious that while he diligently applied himself to this world's business his heart was fixed on Heaven, where the treasure of his soul was laid up, and that the Crown of Righteousness at the end of the race was the reward he strove for. His numerous charities were generously and judiciously bestowed, and while many of his benefactions were public, and various institutions counted him among their chief supporters, very many of his good deeds have no record save on high. His loving heart gave true and ready and abiding sympathy to those who needed comfort, help, or encouragement, and many received from him support and cheer as helpful as material assistance.

Above all, it is our privilege and duty to record that these traits and virtues were the fruit of Divine Grace operating in the good ground of a tender and believing heart. Simple, earnest, deep, and strong were his religious feelings, in keeping with his character, and none could know him without perceiving that in his life he desired to follow the example, and be guided by the spirit, of his Master.

He was a full believer in the views of gospel truth held by our Society, and attended Friends' meeting with undeviating regularity. The longer he lived the more he seemed to value these principles, and his confidence was unshaken that they were destined to live and not to die.

In his endowment of Haverford College he desired to establish firmly an institution which he believed had done much to uphold, and would continue to cherish, the doctrines and testimonies of the Society of Friends.

The language of his will expresses the deep, settled conviction of his long life in reference to the value of an education received under the influences of the Christian religion as professed by Friends, and in his provision for the future of our College he has placed upon the Corporation, and its Board of Managers, a weighty and solemn responsibility in the carrying out of his intentions. May they be enabled rightly to administer the trust.

The following letter from President Thomas Chase was read. Its full and loving tribute to our departed friend and benefactor was gratefully received, and the communication ordered to be entered in full upon our minutes as a further expression of our sentiments.

HOWARD COMFORT,

Secretary.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, HAVERFORD COLLEGE,
Fifth Month 28th, 1885.

To the Board of Managers:

I believe a tribute of grateful respect is due from me to the memory of our friend, Jacob P. Jones, for his generous contributions to the College in his lifetime, and the magnificent provision he has made for its future support.

His interest in the Institution was first manifested in the year 1859, when he entered his beloved and only son, Richard Thomas Jones, as a member of our Freshman Class.

During the four years of his course, Richard T. Jones won the love and esteem of the Faculty and his fellow-students by his rare graces of mind and disposition and his exemplary character. A young man of singular promise, he was taken from his fond parents and his many friends to a better world in 1869. His sorrowing father, on this disappointment of his earthly hopes, looked with affectionate interest to the scene of his son's youthful studies, where he had spent several years, happy in his companionships and in his mental and moral growth, and where he had received instructions and been surrounded by influences which he recognized as profitable, both for this life and for the next.

Early in the autumn of 1871, Jacob P. Jones drove out to the College, and after careful and very judicious inquiries in regard to the future policy of the Institution, announced to me, in confidence, his purpose of making the College his residuary and principal legatee. His generous execution of this purpose has placed his name high on the list of wise public benefactors, and has erected an enduring monument to the memory of himself and his son.

In his lifetime, also, he subscribed $10,000 toward the building of Barclay Hall, and has for some years contributed large amounts annually for the support of the College.

Not only does his warm and generous interest in our Institution, and his liberal contributions and provision for its future improvement and support, call for our most grateful acknowledgment, but, above all, we owe it to his memory that we should place on our records some expression of the Christian graces of his life and character.

Maintaining traditions of integrity from an honorable ancestry, he was an upright, intelligent, and successful merchant, a public-spirited citizen, a generous promoter of every good cause, a ready sympathizer with the neglected, the afflicted, and the needy, a judicious and liberal contributor to their wants, and—what the Lord loveth—a cheerful giver. He was kindly, courteous, sympathizing, and unostentatious in all his intercourse with his fellow men, and singularly loving and tender in the sacred privacy of domestic life. These graces and vir-

IT WAS A BEAUTIFUL SUNNY DAY AND REFRESHMENTS WERE SPREAD UPON A TABLE ON THE LAWN. tues were all animated and heightened by his deep and living faith in his crucified and risen Redeemer, whom he accepted in all His offices—in His death as the ransom for our sins and in His life as the great example of holy living, that we should walk after His steps.

I know from his own lips, for my conversations with him, though few, were full, and fragrant not of earth, but of Heaven—that he placed all his hopes on the merits of Jesus Christ, his Saviour.

It was a privilege to commune with his chastened and gentle spirit. The benediction which follows the lives of the just rests upon his memory.

Respectfully,

THOMAS CHASE,

President of Haverford College.

Jacob P. Jones died, as stated, in 1885; his widow, Mary T. Jones, died Tenth Month 20, 1896. In Fourth Month 1897 the Executors turned over to the Corporation in settlement for the residuary estate cash and securities of an appraised value of $331,550.00 and of a par value of $279,021.60 and also sundry real estate. The chief item of the latter was the donor's late residence and farm of 104 acres located near Haddington, Philadelphia, which had come down through his paternal ancestors from a grant by William Penn in 1699. It was known as "Rhos y Mynydd." The first sale of 15 acres of this land was made in 1897. As the development of the City grew out to and gradually passed beyond it, sundry other sales to a total number of 46 have been made, and 16.932 acres have been dedicated to the City for streets. The last sale was completed in Sixth Month, 1923, and the total realized from the whole property amounts to $745,627.93

The four other parcels of real estate realized :

1423 Filbert St. Sold 1900	$80,000.00
1531 Filbert St. " 1900
1528 Cuthbert St. " 1900

115 Cheapside St., Baltimore, Md. " 1904	5,000.00
		102,081.99
Further securities came to the Corporation in 1901 upon the death of an annuitant of a par value of		18,600.00
		18,600.00
Making a total in all of	$866,309.92
Which added to the original personal estate	279,021.60
		279,021.60

Makes a grand total at par value of $1,145,331.52

The corresponding book value as and when received was $1,197,859.92

In 1910 the Board set aside $46,680.75 out of sales of the above farm to establish the Jacob P. Jones Benefit Fund, to be used with other funds for pensions of professors. The unused income of this Fund was added to its principal for a number of years, and its par value on 9th Mo. 1st, 1923, was $70,011.99, with a market value of $64,831.99. On 1st Mo. 1, 1927, the par value was unchanged at $70,011.99 with the market value $66,036.99.*

The Jacob P. Jones Endowment Fund on 9th Mo. 1, 1923, had a par value of $1,191,030.62 and a market value of $1,239,107.12. By changes in investments and enhanced values the corresponding figures for 1st Mo. 1, 1927, were par value $1,409,840.56, market value $1,361,868.44.

*This account of Jacob P. Jones was read at the Managers' meeting 11th Mo. 16, 1923, and the figures were presented as of that time. In printing the account in 1927, it seems appropriate to bring the figures up to 1st Mo. 1, 1927.

The two Funds together as of 1st Mo. 1, 1927, amount to:

	Par Value	Market Value
Jacob P. Jones Endowment
Fund	$1,409,840.56	$1,361,868.44
Jacob P. Jones Benefit
Fund	70,011.99	66,036.99
	<hr/>	<hr/>
Totals	$1,479,852.55	$1,427,905.43

The increase of the totals over the original figures of the Trust amounting in 1927 to $334,521.03 par value and $230,045.51 in market value, has been occasioned by accretion and changes of investments, by adding unused income to principal as above, and by adding to principal up to the year 1919 inclusive, the income above 5% realized on mortgages.

The two Funds yield present income:

Jacob P. Jones Endowment Fund, about.....	$71,500.00
Jacob P. Jones Benefit Fund.....	3,126.00

which is 5.01% on par value and 5.2% on present (1927) market values.

In carrying out the purpose of the donor in scholarships, $9,200.00 per annum are usually appropriated as follows:

16 Corporation Scholarships	@ $300.00	$4,800.00
24 Other Scholarships	@ 150.00	3,600.00
8 Other Scholarships	@ 100.00	800.00
		$9,200.00

To help in realizing the import of this benefaction to the College, the following comparison of the present figures and those of 1885, the year of Jacob P. Jones' death, are submitted:

HAVERFORD COLLEGE

HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION

Haverford College was founded in 1833. It owes its origin to the insight and energy of a few members of the Society of Friends from Philadelphia and New York, who, in the spring of 1830, conceived the idea of founding an institution for education in the higher branches of learning. Its object, in the words of the founders, was "to combine sound and liberal instruction in literature and science with a religious care over the morals and manners, thus affording to the youth of our Society an opportunity of acquiring an education equal in all respects to that which can be obtained at colleges."

The founders were incorporated in 1833 under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania into the Haverford School Association, a body now known as the Corporation of Haverford College. This corporation elects a board of managers for the control of its affairs and for the administration of its funds. For the founding of the School sixty thousand dollars was raised; but the sum proved insufficient for its maintenance, and for many years the financial deficit was met by liberal subscriptions of friends.

From 1845 to 1848 the School was closed in order to allow the funds to accumulate and to give time for the collection of an endowment. Since that time, by a number of generous bequests and donations, the amount of invested funds yielding interest has been increased to over three and a half million dollars.

The first building of the College was Founders Hall, erected in 1833. The Observatory was built in 1852, and enlarged in 1883. Alumni Hall was built in 1863, and enlarged in 1898 and 1912 to meet the growing needs of the Library. In 1877 Barclay Hall, a dormitory, was erected by friends of the College. The Mechanical Laboratory was established in 1884, and was provided with a new building in 1890; this was burned down in 1896, and Whitall Hall, a new three-story structure, was built. The old Biological Laboratory was established in 1886; Chase Hall for lectures and recitations, and the old Physical Laboratory were built in 1888. The Cricket Shed was erected in 1893. In more recent years, during a period of rapid development, made possible largely by the general and unflinching co-operation of the alumni, the following additions have been made to the College equipment: in 1899, the Logan and Norris sections of Lloyd Hall, a dormitory; in 1900, a large and well-equipped Gymnasium; in 1903, Roberts Hall, the gift of Lucy Branson Roberts, with College offices and a large auditorium; in 1903, Merion Hall, a dormitory, remodeled from the old Haverford Grammar School building; in 1905, an additional wing to Founders Hall for dining halls and kitchen; in 1906, a permanent building for the heating and lighting plant; in 1907, the enlargement of Merion Hall; in 1909, the Haverford Union, a building presented by Alfred Percival Smith, '84; in 1910, the Lyman Beecher Hall Chemistry Laboratory; in 1912, the Morris Infirmary, given by John T. Morris, '67; in 1913, a new section of Lloyd Hall, given by the estate of the late Justus C. Strawbridge, and a concrete grandstand, the gift of Horace E. Smith, '86; in 1916, the Smith section of Lloyd Hall, from the same donor, and the Kinsey section; in 1917, Isaac Sharpless Hall, for biology and physics. In addition to these College buildings there are a number of residences on the grounds which are occupied for the most part by professors.

The College has a pleasant and healthful location in the township of Haverford, Delaware County, Pennsylvania, nine miles west of the center of Philadelphia. It is accessible by the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad and by the Philadelphia and Western Railway. The selection of this site is thus described by the first managers: "We wished to procure a farm in a neighborhood of unquestionable salubrity—within a short distance of a Friends' meeting—of easy access from this city at all seasons of the year . . . recommended by the beauty of the scenery and a retired situation." And they reported that they had purchased for the sum of $17,865 "an oblong tract of 198½ acres . . . nearly south of the eight mile stone on the Lancaster Turnpike." This property has since been increased to two hundred and twenty-five acres with an estimated present value of over one and one-half million dollars. While a portion is retained as farm and woodland, a lawn of sixty acres was long ago graded and tastefully planted with trees and shrubs by a landscape gardener, so that the natural beauty of the location has increased with passing years. The grounds include five fields, for cricket, baseball, American Rugby and association football, a running-track, seven tennis courts, and a pond for skating. In 1925 a board track for winter practice was provided.

Parallel with its material growth there have been changes in the inner life of the College which have affected the methods of administration rather than the essential principles on which the institution was founded. It has gradually increased in number of students, but still enjoys the advantages of a small college. From the first it gave instruction of collegiate scope and grade. Accordingly, in 1856, the name was changed from school to college and the right to confer degrees was granted by the Legislature. In 1861 the preparatory department was abolished. General courses are now given in arts and science. The endowment for salaries and pensions enables the College to maintain a faculty of unusual size in proportion to the number of students, and to expend for the instruction, board, and lodging of each student about twice the sum which he pays.

In accordance with the modern ideals of religious and moral education, the students enjoy ample liberty, safeguarded by their wholesome physical life, by the traditions of the College, and by the intimate association with their professors and fellow students. The deep religious spirit bequeathed by the Quaker founders has been carefully cherished, and high ideals of life and conduct are maintained; three times a month the College attends Friends' meeting in a body. The aims of Haverford have been gradually developing and its function is becoming more and more clear—"to encourage the growth, among a limited number of young men, of vigorous bodies, scholarly minds, strong characters, and a real religious experience."

ADMISSION

All applicants for admission to Haverford College must present evidence that they have received satisfactory ratings on the College Board examinations required by either one of the systems of admission outlined on pages 18-20. In addition, each candidate must present, on blanks furnished by the College, his school record and a certificate of character signed by the School Principal; also, a health certificate signed by his family physician. Whenever practicable, the College will arrange for the candidate a personal interview with a representative of this institution. Applicants should realize that, in view of the limited enrollment, they are entering a competition for a definite number of vacancies in a select and comparatively small student organization. On the basis of all information available—College Board reports, school record, medical certificate, evidence touching on character and personality—the applicant will be accepted or rejected, and the decision of the Committee on Admissions is final. Since it is desired to admit candidates who are best fitted to profit by the opportunities offered by Haverford College, preference will be given to those with superior records and credentials rather than to those with mere priority of application.

Subject to the final acceptance of the candidate, vacant rooms are assigned in the order in which application blanks (see opposite page), properly filled out, are received by the College Office, consequently candidates are advised to make application two or three years in advance, addressing preliminary correspondence to the President of Haverford College. For the benefit of the candidate in filling out his application blank, it may here be stated that, for resident students, the inclusive price of tuition, board, and room (including heat, light, attendance, and necessary bedroom furniture, i. e., chiffonier, bed, bed linen) varies from $625 to $800 per year, while day students are charged $300 for tuition; $380 for tuition and luncheon. For details, see pages 91-92.

The subjects which may be presented for admission are divided into two groups in accordance with the following table. The figures given represent "units" according to the system of the Carnegie Foundation.*

* "A unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work. A four years' secondary school curriculum should be regarded as representing not more than sixteen units of work."

Group I (required of all candidates):

English 1	}	3
English 2
Mathematics A 1	}	2
Mathematics A 2
Mathematics C		1
One History		1

Group II (elective):

Two-year Latin (Cp2)*	2
Latin 1	1
Latin 2 or 6	1
Latin 4	1
Latin 5†	1
Two-year Greek (Cp2)	2
Third year Greek (Greek Cp H)	1
German A (Cp2)	2
German B	1
French A (Cp2)	2
French B	1
Italian A (Cp2)	2
Italian B	1
Spanish A (Cp2)	2

* Latin Cp. 2 is designed for those who offer a total of 2 units of Latin, but it may also be substituted for Latin 1, in which case Latin Cp 2 will have the value of one unit. The total credit for Latin may not exceed 4 units, nor is credit given for less than 2 units.

† Latin 1, 2, and 4 presuppose three years of Latin study; Latin 5 and 6, four years; but Vergil may be studied in the third year and Cicero in the fourth year without detriment to the candidate.

Spanish B	1
Botany	1
Chemistry	1
Histories, each	1
Physics	1
Biology	1
Bible*	1
Mathematics D	1/2
Mathematics E	1/2

Every student must present for admission subjects having a total value of 15 units, arranged as follows:

For the A.B. degree:

All subjects in Group I	7
Latin 1, 2 (or 6), 4, 5	4
(Or Greek, 3 units)
Other subjects from Group II (including at least two units in one language)....	4
(Or, with Greek, 5 units)

For the S.B. degree:

All subjects in Group I	7
Subjects from Group II (including at least two units in each of two languages)†..	8

The candidate may give evidence of his preparation in these requirements by either of the following plans for admission:

I. By Examination only. The candidate must take entrance examinations in all the subjects which he presents for admission. He may take examinations in any of these subjects as preliminary examinations a full year or more before he intends to enter college, but for preliminary examinations only the June examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board are accepted. Comprehensive examinations are not accepted in Mathematics; they are accepted in other subjects.

* In this subject the only examination available is that given by Haverford College in September.

† Students entering in 1929 or thereafter must present for admission at least three units in one foreign language on which College Board Examinations must be passed for admission by either system, and two units in another foreign language.

II. By both Examination and Certificate. This system may be employed by school graduates only. The graduate must present, on blanks supplied by the College and signed by the principal of the school which he has attended, a complete record of his work on all subjects during the last four years of preparation, with the time spent and the grade received in each study. This work is expected to include the subjects with a total value of 15 units prescribed on the preceding page.

He must also take entrance examinations in three subjects—English, Mathematics, and one foreign language. The English will be the examination defined as English 2. The mathematics will be both Mathematics A and Mathematics C. The language required will be, for the A.B. degree, either Latin 2, 4, 5 or Greek Cp2 and Greek Cp H; for the S.B. degree,* Latin Cp2 or Greek Cp2 or German Cp2 or French Cp2 or Spanish Cp2. Comprehensive examinations may be substituted in part for the ordinary examinations: for English 2, English Cp; for Latin 2, 4, 5, Latin Cp4; for Greek Cp2 and Greek Cp H, Greek Cp3. Comprehensive examinations only will be offered in September except in Mathematics. Mathematics Cp3 will not be accepted for entrance. These examinations must all be taken and passed at one time either in June or September.

* Special notice is given that in 1929 and thereafter, the language examination for entrance to the Science course will be Latin Cp3 or German Cp3 or French Cp3 or Spanish Cp3 or Italian Cp3. See footnote on page 18.

On the basis of his certificate and his marks in these examinations the applicant will be either admitted without conditions or rejected with permission to apply again for admission according to either plan.

This plan is intended mainly for good students, who, deciding late in their school courses to enter Haverford, would find it difficult to prepare themselves for examination in all their entrance subjects, but could readily pass a good examination in three fundamental subjects of their school course and present a satisfactory certificate for all of it. Candidates of only average ability and those who can take preliminary examinations in regular order will gain nothing by adopting this plan.

Advanced Standing.—On account of limited accommodations it is usually impossible to admit students to other than the Freshman class.

SCHEDULE OF EXAMINATIONS FOR ADMISSION

Applicants for admission to the Freshman Class are expected to take the examinations held by the College Entrance Examination Board in June in many cities. Those who pass these examinations in June will receive first consideration for all Freshman scholarships and for the limited accommodations annually reserved for Freshmen. For information with regard to these examinations address The College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117th Street, New York City.

COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION BOARD

Examinations of June 20-25, 1927

The application for examination should be addressed to the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117th Street, New York, N. Y. It should be made upon a blank form to be obtained from the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board.

If the application be received sufficiently early the examination fee will be $10.00 for each candidate whether examined in the United States, Canada, or elsewhere. The fee, which should accompany the application, should be remitted by postal order, express order, or draft on New York to the order of the College Entrance Examination Board.

Applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined outside of the United States and Canada should reach the Secretary of the Board at least six weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before May 9, 1927.

Applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points west of the Mississippi River or in Canada should be received at least four weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before May 23, 1927.

Applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points east of the Mississippi River or on the Mississippi River should be received at least three weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before Monday, May 30, 1927.

When a candidate has failed to obtain the required blank form of application for examination the usual examination fee will be accepted if the fee arrives not later than the specified date accompanied by a memorandum containing the name and address of the candidate, the exact examination center selected, and a list of all the subjects in which he expects to take the Board examinations.

Applications received later than the dates named will be accepted when it is possible to arrange for the examination of the candidates concerned, but only upon payment of an additional fee of five dollars.

A list of places at which examinations are to be held in June, 1927, will be published about March 1. Requests that the examinations be held at particular points should be transmitted to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board not later than February 1. The designation of the center to which the candidate will go for examination is regarded as an indispensable part of his application for examination.

Detailed definitions of the requirements in all examination subjects are given in a circular of information published annually by the College Entrance Examination Board. The edition published December 1, 1925, was designated as Document 117. A new edition designated as Document 120 will appear December 1, 1926. Upon request a single copy of this document will be sent to any teacher without charge. In general a charge of twenty cents, which may be remitted in postage, will be made.

SEPTEMBER EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are held in September at the College for the convenience of emergency cases. They may not be taken as preliminary examinations. No applicant should deliberately postpone his examination until September, as no assurance can be given that he will be admitted, if the capacity of the College has already been reached. The examinations given will be comprehensive examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board except in Mathematics and Bible.

In Mathematics candidates will be limited to the College Board examinations designated as Mathematics A, C, D, F. Those who desire to pass either part of Mathematics A can do so only by passing Mathematics A complete.

A fee of ten dollars ($10.00) will be charged each candidate taking these examinations as his first trial for admission to Haverford College; a fee of five dollars ($5.00) will be charged for one or more re-examinations. Fees must be paid to Haverford College before admission to the September College Board examinations.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION IN THE
SEVERAL SUBJECTS
ENGLISH

The requirement in English is that recommended by the National Conference on Uniform Entrance Requirements in English.

DEFINITION OF THE REQUIREMENT
FOR 1926-1928

Habits of correct, clear, and truthful expression. This part of the requirement calls for a carefully graded course in oral and written composition, and for instruction in the practical essentials of grammar, a study which ordinarily should be reviewed in the secondary school. In all written work constant attention should be paid to spelling, punctuation, and good usage in general as distinguished from current errors. In all oral work there should be constant insistence upon the elimination of such elementary errors as personal speech-defects, foreign accent, and obscure enunciation.

Ability to read with intelligence and appreciation works of moderate difficulty; familiarity with a few masterpieces. This part of the requirement calls for a carefully graded course in literature. Two lists of books are provided from which a specified number of units must be chosen for reading and study. The first contains selections appropriate for the earlier years in the secondary school. These should be carefully read, in some cases studied, with a measure of thoroughness appropriate for immature minds. The second contains selections for the closer study warranted in the later years. The progressive course formed from the two lists should be supplemented at least by home reading on the part of the pupil and by class-room reading on the part of pupils and instructor. It should be kept constantly in mind that the main purpose is to cultivate a fondness for good literature and to encourage the habit of reading with discrimination.

* Reprinted from Document 114 of the College Entrance Examination Board.

DESCRIPTION OF THE RESTRICTED EXAMINATIONS, 1923-1928

English 1-2—Grammar, Composition, and Literature (three units)

English 1—Grammar and Composition (two units)

English 2—Literature (one unit)

The examination will be in two parts. The first part, on Grammar and Composition, will test powers of correct, clear, truthful expression. The candidate will write one or more compositions several paragraphs in length. For this purpose a list of eight or ten subjects will be provided. These will be suggested in part by the books recommended for reading, but a sufficient number from other sources will make it possible for the candidate to draw upon his own experience and ideas. He will not be expected to compose at a more rapid rate than three hundred fifty words an hour, but his work must be free from common errors in grammar, idiom, spelling, and punctuation, and should show that he understands the principles of unity and coherence. In addition, questions will be asked on the practical essentials of grammar, such as the construction of words and the relation of various parts of a sentence to one another.

The second part, on Literature, will test the faithfulness with which the candidate has studied the works recommended for study and his ability to grasp quickly the meaning of a passage of prose or verse that he has not previously seen and to answer simple questions on its literary qualities. No candidate will be passed on this part of the examination whose work shows serious defects in composition.

In connection with the second part of the Restricted Examination the candidate will be required to submit a statement certified by his principal specifying what books he has read during his secondary school course, and indicating the quality and character of his spoken English.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION IN ENGLISH

The purpose of this examination will be to test the ability of the candidate to define clearly in writing ideas gained both from books and from the life around him, and to read with accuracy and appreciation literature as varied in subject matter and form as that listed under "Uniform Entrance Requirements in English." Accuracy in the technique of writing will be insisted upon, but no paper will be considered satisfactory which does not show, in addition to this accuracy, that the student is able to think for himself and to apply what he has learned to the solution of unexpected problems. Although knowledge of the subject matter of the particular books prescribed in the "Uniform Entrance Requirements in English" is not necessary, yet the requisite ability cannot be gained without a systematic and progressive study of good literature.

A candidate whose certificate entitles him to apply for admission "by both examination and certificate" (see p. 19) may take either English 2 or the Comprehensive Examination in English. The latter, while difficult, does offer certain advantages to one whose study of literature has not been based on the books listed for special study in English 2.

MATHEMATICS

The definition of the requirements in Mathematics is the same as that of the College Entrance Examination Board.

Mathematics A1—Algebra: to Quadratics.

LATIN*

I. Amount and Range of the Reading Required

(1) The Latin reading, without regard to the prescription of particular authors and works, shall be not less in amount than Cæsar, Gallic War, I-IV (for two-year Latin); Cicero, the orations against Catiline, for the Manilian Law, and for Archias (for third year Latin); Vergil, Æneid, I-IV (for fourth year Latin).

(2) The amount of reading specified above shall be selected by the schools from the following authors and works: Cæsar (Gallic War and Civil War) and Nepos (Lives); Cicero (Orations, Letters, and De Senectute) and Sallust (Catiline and Jugurthine War); Vergil (Bucolics, Georgics, and Æneid) and Ovid (Metamorphoses, Fasti, and Tristia).

II. Scope of the Examinations

(1) Translation at Sight. Candidates will be examined in translation at sight of both prose and verse. The vocabulary, construction, and range of ideas of the passages set will be suited to the preparation secured by the reading indicated above.

(2) Prescribed Reading. Candidates for third and fourth year Latin will be examined also upon the following prescribed reading:

In 1926, 1927, and 1928. Cicero, the first oration against Catiline, the oration for Archias, and the impeachment of Verres, Actio Secunda, IV, ch. 52-60 (The Plunder of Syracuse); Virgil, Æneid, III and VI; Ovid, Metamorphoses, Book I, 313-415 (Deucalion and Pyrrha); II, 1-328 (Phaethon); VII, 1-158 (The Golden Fleece); VIII, 616-724 (Philemon and Baucis); X, 560-680 (Atalanta's Race).

Accompanying the different passages will be questions on subject-matter, literary and historical allusions, and prosody. Every paper in which passages from the prescribed reading are set for translation will contain also one or more passages for translation at sight; and candidates must deal satisfactorily with both these parts of the paper, or they will not be given credit for either part.

(3) Grammar and Composition. The examination in grammar and composition will demand thorough knowledge of all regular inflections, all common irregular forms, and the ordinary syntax and vocabulary of the prose authors read in school, with ability to use this knowledge in writing simple Latin prose.

III. Subjects for Examination

- (a) For those who offer a total of 2 units in Latin for 2 points credit. (If those who offer a total of 3 or 4 units substitute this examination for Latin 1, this examination will receive only 1 point credit.)

Two-year Latin (Latin Cp2). This examination will presuppose reading not less in amount than Cæsar, Gallic War, I-IV, selected by the schools from Cæsar (Gallic War and Civil War), and Nepos (Lives); but the passages set will be chosen with a view to sight translation. The paper will include easy grammatical questions and some simple composition.

- (b) For those who offer 4 units in Latin (or 3 units, if the Vergil or Cicero be omitted).

Grammar (Latin 1).

Elementary Prose Composition (Latin 2) or Advanced Prose Composition (Latin 6).

The examination will be adapted to the proficiency of those who have studied Greek in a systematic school course of five exercises a week, extending through two or three school years.

The paper will include passages of simple Attic prose and of Homer to be translated at sight, and questions, based upon these passages, to afford the candidate means of showing his mastery of the ordinary forms, constructions, and idioms of the language. The paper will also include passages in English to be turned into Greek, and questions on prosody, on the Homeric poems, and on Homeric life.

The examination will make provision for candidates wishing to offer the following:

Greek Cp. 2, Two-Year Greek—Xenophon and Composition.

easy passages taken from modern German prose; to write out typical declensional and conjugational paradigms and such other grammatical forms as are usually given in school grammars; and to translate into German simple English sentences or a piece of easy connected prose.

Candidates should have read in preparation not less than three hundred pages of modern German, including reading at sight, from the works of at least three different authors.

German B, admitting to German 2. A more thorough knowledge of grammar, vocabulary and idiom than that required for German A, enabling the candidate to read at sight more difficult prose as well as poetry, and to translate into German a number of English sentences or a piece of connected prose requiring both appreciation of the English idiom and knowledge of the corresponding German idiom.

Students presenting themselves for examination in German B will not be given credit for it unless they pass also the examination in German Cp. 2.

Students who fail in the examination in German Cp. 2 will not be allowed to enter German 1 without special permission of the instructor; students who fail in the examination in German B will not be permitted to present themselves for re-examination in German B if they have taken German in college.

FRENCH

French Cp. 2, admitting to French 1. (a) Proficiency in elementary grammar including the more common irregular verbs. (b) Ability to translate simple French prose and to put into French short sentences requiring a knowledge of the simpler idioms. Candidates should have read in preparation not less than three hundred pages, including reading at sight, from the works of at least three different authors.

French B, admitting to French 2. (a) Thorough knowledge of the fundamentals of grammar. (b) Ability to translate ordinary French of the nineteenth century. (c) Command of idiom sufficient to put into French a connected passage of simple English prose.

Students who have presented themselves for examination in French B will not be given credit for it unless they have passed also the examination in French Cp. 2.

ITALIAN

Two examinations, Italian Cp. 2 and Italian B, are offered, and the requirements are identical with those given above for French Cp. 2 and French B.

SPANISH

Two examinations, Spanish Cp. 2 and Spanish B, are offered, and the requirements are identical with those given above for French Cp. 2 and French B.

BOTANY

One year of text-book and laboratory work is required. The student will be expected to have a fairly definite knowledge of the seed and seedling, root, stem, and leaf, the flower and fruit, the cell, and the natural history and classification of plants.

CHEMISTRY

The requirements in chemistry comprehend systematic instruction in the occurrence, preparation, properties and uses of some of the commoner elements, including hydrogen, oxygen, carbon, chlorine, sulfur and nitrogen, and their compounds, and in the simpler physico-chemical theories and laws, including the atomic theory, the gas laws, and the laws of chemical combination. This is to be accompanied by an adequate course of experiments performed by the student.

PHYSICS

The requirement is one year's work, covering mechanics, sound, heat, light, magnetism, and electricity. Emphasis will be laid upon the solution of problems. At least two hours per week of laboratory work must be included.

BIBLE

The requirement in Biblical subjects is at present in accord with the recommendations of The Commission on the Definition of a Unit of Bible Study for Secondary Schools, and gives an option of three types of courses, each the equivalent of four hours of recitation per week for twenty weeks, any two of which may be offered as a minimum requirement. These may be described briefly as:

I. A course comparable as to method with courses in English Literature followed with students of the same grade which shall cover sixty narrative and poetic passages in the Old Testament as specified.

II and III. Courses comparable as to method with courses in European and American history followed with students of the same grade in the political, social, and cultural development of the Hebrew people from 1200 B. C. to 70 A. D., or

The development of Christianity from the reign of Augustus to the persecution of Christianity under Domitian.

COURSE OF STUDY

The course of study includes both required and elective subjects, thus combining the breadth of knowledge and culture that comes from variety of studies with opportunity for concentration on limited fields. In addition to a general course in arts or in science, by proper choice of electives more specialized courses can be taken in preparation for professions as described on pages 40-44.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR BACHELOR'S DEGREE

Languages. No student is graduated who cannot write a creditable style extemporaneously. English and a course in one foreign language must be taken in Freshman year. Candidates for the A.B. degree must take either Greek or Latin in both Freshman and Sophomore years; they must complete either Latin 2 or Greek 1 and in addition either French 1 or German 1 or Spanish 1 or Latin 1 or Greek 1 or the equivalent. Candidates for the S.B. degree must complete either French 2 or German 2 and in addition either French 1 or German 1 or Spanish 1 or Latin 1 or Greek 1 or the equivalent. Three units of entrance credit in a language are equivalent to a 1-course.

Mathematics. Mathematics 1 and 1' must be taken in Freshman year.

Science. One laboratory course in biology, chemistry, or physics is required of all students before graduation.

Economics, Biblical Literature, Psychology and Ethics. The required courses in these subjects are specified on page 45.

Majors and Minors. In order to encourage proper concentration it is required that after Freshman year at least three full courses be taken in one department and at least two full courses in each of two other departments. The three courses must be distributed over at least two years. In fulfilment of this requirement no account shall be taken of courses intended primarily for Freshmen (namely, Biology 1a, Engineering 1 and 1', English 1, French A, German A, Mathematics 1 and 1', Physics A) even though these courses be taken after Freshman year.

Maximum and Minimum Schedule. The minimum schedule for any student is five courses, except that, in addition, Sophomores are required to take Physical Training and Freshmen are required to take Physical Training and Biology 1a. Not more than one additional course may be taken in any half-year, except by special permission of the Dean.

Conflicting Courses. A student is not allowed to elect conflicting courses, except with the permission of the Dean and the two instructors concerned.

SPECIAL PLANS OF STUDY IN PREPARATION FOR PROFESSIONS

A large and increasing number of Haverford College students desire on graduation to enter upon courses of study fitting them for professions. For students desiring intensive preliminary training in engineering, medicine, and other highly specialized subjects, the College offers combinations of courses which admit to the best professional schools in the country with full standing, and in many cases with advanced credit.

To illustrate this feature of the curriculum there are presented on the following pages sample outlines of study for the four years, preparatory to specialization in Engineering, Medicine, Law, and Business Administration. Similar outlines might be prepared for other professions,—teaching, the ministry, journalism, industrial chemistry, etc. The student will in all cases consult with his Faculty Adviser and the professors concerned in his choice of courses. In addition to the courses given in the schedule, there are elective honor courses in which the student receives individual attention in advanced work to suit his particular needs.

N. B.—It is understood that each of the outlines following is a sample only, presenting one among many possibilities, and is not intended to be a prescribed program.

Preparation for Engineering.

Engineering today covers an extremely broad field of service, and there is accordingly no standard type of training suitable for all students preparing themselves for an engineering career.

Students not intending to enter the highly specialized fields of design and research will find the Haverford course ample for their needs. Graduates of Haverford who have majored in engineering are admitted to the student-engineers' courses of the leading industrial companies on equal terms with graduates of the larger engineering colleges.

Those men who desire to specialize on the technical side of engineering and who are planning to continue their professional work at another school, will, ordinarily, elect only those engineering courses that are required for the first two years of the particular school to which they are going.

A course in General Engineering similar to those variously announced as "Engineering Administration," "Commercial Engineering," etc., is outlined in the following pages. In addition to the outline following, other combinations of studies may be arranged to meet special needs. In this outline the major is engineering and the minors, economics and mathematics.

Preparation for Medicine. Owing to the increased admission requirements of the medical schools it is necessary for a student intending to study medicine to plan his college course carefully in order to avoid conflicts between necessary courses and to avoid overloading with laboratory courses in his junior and senior years. All of the leading medical schools require the equivalent of the following Haverford courses: English 1, Biology 2, Chemistry 1, 2, and 4, Physics A and 1, and either French or German A and 1. Johns Hopkins University requires both French and German and also elementary Latin. The University of Pennsylvania requires an additional course in English. In addition to these courses, medical school authorities advise certain other courses in pre-medical sciences.

A prospective physician should ordinarily make his major either biology or chemistry and one of his minors chemistry or biology. A student who already has a good educational background may elect certain advanced courses in biology which actually anticipate the work of a medical school, and may thus enter his medical course with special advantages.

It is possible for a student to graduate from Haverford with either the A.B. or the S.B. degree and fulfill all the requirements for admission to medical school. In the sample pre-medical schedule given below, the major is biology and the minors are chemistry and physics.

Preparation for the Law, and for Business Administration. There are no particular studies indicated as entrance requirements by the law schools, though in some cases the applicant must hold a college degree. It is obvious, however, that a choice of electives may be made which will be of great value to the student in the study and practice of his profession. With a few unimportant changes this choice is also appropriate for a future career of business administration, whether the candidate continues study at a graduate school or engages directly in business.

ENGINEERING

The engineering courses are designed to give a thorough training in fundamental engineering principles and, as far as practicable, to illustrate the application of these principles to their associated industries.

Exceptional facilities for observing the practical side of the work are offered by the many manufacturing companies in and near Philadelphia, and frequent inspection trips are made.

The lack of a general or broad education and of thoroughness in fundamentals has been universally recognized as limiting the usefulness and opportunities of many in the engineering profession. To provide against these deficiencies, students electing courses in engineering will be required to pursue studies of a general nature (history, ethics, economics, languages, etc.) throughout the four years, and to concentrate largely on mathematics, physics, and chemistry, the fundamentals of all engineering. This combination of breadth with thorough groundwork prepares the way for the highest professional development.

By a careful selection of electives from the several departments, a student should be able to meet the fundamental requirements of any branch of engineering activity which he may later undertake.* For the needs of those desiring more specialized courses before entering the active work of the profession, very favorable arrangements may be made with technical institutions, all of which grant substantial credit toward advanced standing for work completed at Haverford.

The wood-working and metal-working shops, the laboratory for testing materials and the draughting-room are housed in Whitall Hall. A complete equipment is provided for carrying on bench and machine-tool work in both wood and metal. A 30,000-pound Riehle screw testing-machine is part of the equipment for testing materials and for studying the laws of stress and strain. The equipment of the draughting-room includes a number of pieces for study and sketching, such as pumps, safety-valves, shaft-hangers, etc.

The electrical engineering laboratory occupies the first floor of the west wing of Founders Hall. The apparatus in this laboratory was selected to illustrate the modern applications as well as the fundamental principles of the science and includes many types of generators and motors, both alternating and direct; a complete line of measuring

PHYSICAL TRAINING

The college equipment for outdoor athletics includes: Walton Field for Rugby football and track sports, with a concrete grandstand and 440-yard oval and 220-yard straightaway cinder tracks; the Class of 1888 and Merion Fields for Association football; a twelve-lap winter board track; a skating pond; Cope Field for cricket, with players' pavilion and shed for winter practice; a new baseball field, presented by the Class of 1922; and seven tennis courts.

The Gymnasium contains a main floor, sixty by ninety feet, equipped with the most improved appliances for American and Swedish gymnastics. It has an inclined running track, five feet in width. Adjoining the main floor are offices for the use of the directors in physical examination and measurement, and for special student conferences. Adjoining the main hall is a large and comfortable reading-room. Above are a trophy room and apartments for the use of the College athletic managers and alumni. The basement contains dressing-rooms, a number of well-ventilated lockers, shower-baths, a swimming-pool, and a double bowling-alley. There is a special dressing-room provided for the Faculty and visiting athletic teams.

A thorough physical examination with a series of efficiency tests is given to each student upon entrance, and another at the end of the Sophomore year. No student whose physical condition is unsatisfactory will be permitted to represent the College on any athletic team. Ability to swim two lengths of the gymnasium pool is required of Sophomores before leaving the required Physical Training Course. A certificate stating that the student has been vaccinated within the two years previous to entrance is required of all students upon entering Haverford College.

Course 1 is required of Freshmen in connection with Biology 1a (see page 49), Course 2 of Sophomores. Course 3 is elective for Seniors and Juniors, but it may be substituted for Course 2 by Sophomores who pass qualification tests at stated periods.

These courses are arranged in accordance with the plan for all-year physical training during Freshman and Sophomore years.

A brief study is made of the characteristics of atoms and molecules when at rest and in motion, followed by an investigation of the phenomena observed during the discharge of electricity through gases, and radio-activity. The latter part of the course is devoted to a study of the electron theory of matter and atomic structure. There is no text-book, but a great deal of reading is required in the library of reference books. LIBRARY

The College Library now contains over ninety thousand volumes, besides numerous classified but uncatalogued pamphlets. It has been selected and arranged with the object of making it especially useful to college professors and students. All have free access to the shelves and are permitted to withdraw from the Library any volume except those reserved for special reasons. The Librarian and assistants will do anything they can to help readers to use the Library intelligently and independently.

About seven thousand dollars is expended yearly for the purchase of books and periodicals. The Library is a regular government depository and receives from other sources many substantial gifts and bequests.

The collection of Quaker literature is probably the most complete in America. The William H. Jenks collection of Friends' tracts, mostly of the seventeenth century, numbers about fifteen hundred separately bound titles.

The Library possesses the fine Harris collection of over sixty Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Arabic, Syriac and Ethiopic manuscripts collected by J. Rendel Harris; a collection of more than four hundred Babylonian clay tablets dating from B. C. 2500; and seven hundred reproductions in fictile ivory of ancient and medieval carved ivories.

Over two hundred literary and scientific periodicals are taken, besides many annual reports, year-books and irregular continuations.

The Library is open, with some exceptions, on week days from 8.30 A. M. to 10 P. M., and on Sundays from 3 to 10 P. M. While designed especially for the use of the officers and students, it affords to others the privilege of consulting and, under certain restrictions, of withdrawing books.

THE CHARLES ROBERTS AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION

This autograph collection, formed by the late Charles Roberts, of Philadelphia, a graduate (1864) and for many years a manager of the College, was in 1902 presented to the College by his wife, Lucy B. Roberts. It consists of more than 11,000 items, embracing not only autograph letters of European and American authors, statesmen, scientists, ecclesiastics, monarchs, and others, but also several series of valuable papers on religious and political history. The general exhibit room is open daily under the care of Miss Hewitt. Special papers from the vault may be inspected on application to Professor Kelsey.

GRADING OF STUDENTS

In determining the standing of the student, daily recitations, hour examinations, and final examinations are all considered.

Students are marked on a scale of 100, and are grouped in 5 sections. Section A indicates a grade of 90 or over, B of 80 to 90. In the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes section C indicates a grade of 70 to 80, D of 60 to 70, E of 50 to 60, F of less than 50. In the Freshman class section C indicates a grade of 65 to 80, D of 50 to 65, E of 35 to 50, F of less than 35. Students in sections E and F fail to pass.

Sophomores are required to obtain an average grade of 65, or over, for promotion to the Junior class; Juniors and Seniors are required to obtain an average grade of 70, or over, for promotion to the Senior class and for graduation, respectively.

HONORS

Honors are awarded for excellence in the studies of single departments. They are never given merely for performance of routine work in courses, but a considerable amount of extra work is demanded in every case.

Honors are of three kinds:

(a) Honorable Mention, to be awarded for work in a single course meeting not less than two hours per week throughout the year, plus additional work to the total amount of not less than 75 hours. Candidates for Honorable Mention must obtain the grade of A in the regular work of the course and pass creditably an examination on the additional work required. Two half-courses in the same department may be construed as a single course. Honorable Mention will be awarded for work in History 2a, or Economics 1b, provided the foregoing requirements as to grade and additional work are satisfied. History 2a may be counted as a full course for Preliminary Honors taken at the end of the Sophomore year.

(b) Preliminary Honors, to be awarded at the end of the Sophomore, Junior, or Senior year for not less than two full courses in a single department, plus additional work to the total amount of not less than 150 hours. Candidates for Preliminary Honors must obtain a grade of at least B in all courses required for such honors (see page 88) and a grade of A in such of these courses as are taken in the year in which they are candidates, and must pass creditably examinations on the additional work required.

(c) Final Honors, to be awarded upon graduation for work in the courses of a single department, plus additional work to the total amount of not less than 250 hours. Candidates for Final Honors must take at least four full courses in the department in which they apply for honors, at least two of these courses being in the Junior and Senior years. They must in all of these courses obtain a grade of at least B and in those taken in the Senior year a grade of A, and must pass creditably examinations on the additional work required. There are three grades of Final Honors: Honors, High Honors, and Highest Honors. The requirements for High Honors are of a more exacting nature than those for Honors, and Highest Honors are reserved for very exceptional cases. Both High Honors and Highest Honors are awarded only by special vote of the Faculty.

A student who has received the prescribed grade in the regular work of a course required for Honors, but who has not done the additional work required in connection with such course, may, with the consent of the professor in charge, make up his deficiency in a later year, but in the case of Final Honors all such deficiencies must be made up by the end of the Junior year.

At the time of the award of Honors there shall be added to the general average for the year of each student receiving Honors, one-half of one per cent for each award of Honorable Mention, Preliminary Honors, or Final Honors. In any given year only one such addition may be made to a student's grade for work in any one subject.

DEFICIENT STUDENTS

A student with an entrance condition (except English, to be removed by obtaining a grade of 65, or better, in either half-year of Freshman English) will be given opportunities for its removal at the regular College Board entrance examinations in June and September only. A fee of $5, to be paid before admission to the entrance examinations, is required by the College for September reexaminations.

A student who obtains grade E (35 to 50 for Freshmen; 50 to 60 for upper-classmen) as his half-year mark in any course is allowed one opportunity for reexamination in the September following the failure (on the Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday immediately preceding the opening of College); for failures during the Senior year, one opportunity will be given in June during Commencement week. Reexaminations (at a fee of $5 per half course) are scheduled only upon written request received by the Registrar before September tenth, upon which date copies of the reexamination Schedule will be mailed to all applicants, and after which date no additional subjects will be scheduled. A student who obtains grade F (below 35 for Freshmen; below 50 for others) as his half-year mark in any course, is not permitted to take a reexamination in that course.

A student with F as his half-year grade, and a student with E as his half-year grade in any course where the condition has not been removed in the one opportunity offered, must repeat the course if it is a required course (repeated courses take precedence in the case of conflict, and are recorded and averaged in the year of repetition), or may substitute some other course if the failure is in an elective course.

A fee of $15 per half-year is charged for all repeated or substituted courses and for any course dropped after two weeks.

A student who is repeating a course, or is substituting one (unless he has an extra course to his credit), or who has conditions in excess of two half courses, or is carrying an entrance condition after Freshman year, shall have his name appear in the student list of the current Catalogue marked with an asterisk (*) to indicate that he is not in full class standing.

Sophomores are required to obtain an average grade of 65, or over, for promotion to the Junior class; Juniors and Seniors are required to obtain an average grade of 70, or over, for promotion to the Senior class and for graduation, respectively. A Sophomore who fails to attain promotion average, and who has not more than two failures, may have the privilege of taking reëxaminations in the two half courses in which he has received the lowest grades, provided that these grades be better than F. A Senior or Junior who fails to attain promotion average, and who has not more than one failure, may have the privilege of taking a reëxamination in the half course in which he has received the lowest grade, provided that this grade be better than F.

Any student whose record is such as to justify the belief that he is not availing himself of the opportunities offered by Haverford College may be dropped. Usually a student who has more than two half courses of failures against him at the opening of College in September will be dropped.

DEGREES

BACHELOR OF ARTS AND BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

Students who have received credit for the full number of courses in prescribed and elective studies, provided they have for the Junior and Senior years a combined average of C, or above, are granted the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science. For the difference in the requirements for the two degrees see page 39. The fee for the Bachelor's degree is fifteen dollars.

MASTER OF ARTS AND MASTER OF SCIENCE

Resident graduates who have received the Bachelor's degree from Haverford College or from an institution of equivalent standing may be admitted as candidates for the degree of Master of Arts or Master of Science. Such students must submit, in writing, for the approval of their instructors and the Faculty Committee on Advanced Degrees, a plan of study comprising the equivalent of four advanced courses, at least two of which must be in the same department and all in allied subjects. This shall be supplemented by additional intensive work equivalent to a three-hour course, which shall be distributed in a manner to be approved by the committee, or, at the option of the instructors concerned, by a thesis. This plan shall be filed with the Registrar before October 15th of the year in which the student begins work for the degree. No course shall be credited towards the Master's degree in which the grade attained is lower than B. The fee for the degree is twenty dollars.

ROOMS

Entering Freshmen are assigned rooms in the order in which their application blanks for admission (see page 16) are received. It is, of course, not always possible to meet the desire of Freshmen for the cheapest rooms. Twelve of the $625 rooms are regularly reserved for Freshmen. The College assumes that a new student will accept any available room of approximately the same price as the room for which a preference is expressed. The choice of rooms by other students is governed by published rules.

A deposit of $15 is required of all students, old and new, before a room is reserved. In case the student occupies the room, the amount will be deducted from his bill for the following year; otherwise it will be forfeited, unless the student be excluded by the College for failures or other sufficient reason.

EXPENSES

The combined charge for tuition ($300), board ($250), and room-rent ($75 to $250, according to location), varies from $625 to $800 a year. This includes heat, electric light, attendance and the use of necessary bedroom furniture, i. e., a chiffonier and a bed, the linen for which is furnished and laundered by the College. Students will supply their own study furniture. In general two students share one study and each has his private bedroom adjoining. A few single rooms are also available. The number of students accommodated in the different halls is as follows:

Merion Hall,	11 at $625 each
Merion Hall,	6 at $650 each

Merion Hall,	16 at $675 each
Merion Hall,	4 at $700 each
Founders Hall,	14 at $625 each
Founders Hall,	13 at $650 each
Founders Hall,	1 at $675
Founders Hall,	2 at $700 each
Barclay Hall,	27 at $625 each
Barclay Hall,	2 at $650 each
Barclay Hall,	4 at $675 each
Barclay Hall,	25 at $700 each
Barclay Hall,	48 at $725 each
Lloyd Hall,	44 at $800 each or 66 at $700 each

The charge for tuition of day-students is $300 a year; for tuition and mid-day meal, $380 a year. For additional fees, see page 90. A laboratory fee (averaging five to ten dollars per half-year) and a bill for materials consumed and for breakage is charged in each of the laboratories.

The Board of Managers requires that first half-year bills (rendered October first) for three-fifths of the student's total cash indebtedness for the current year for room, board, and tuition must be paid in full before November first. Second half-year bills (rendered February first) must be paid in full before March first. Failure to pay within the specified time automatically cancels the student's registration.

A student is held financially responsible for any damage to his room.

THE MORRIS INFIRMARY

The Morris Infirmary, presented by John T. Morris, '67, has been in operation since the fall of 1912. It contains ten beds, a surgical room, an isolation ward for contagious diseases, and accommodations for physician and nurse. Every provision has been made for medical and surgical treatment of all cases among students during the college year. The danger of infection through illness in the college dormitories is thus minimized.

No charge is made for the attendance of the regular nurse. Medical attendance for brief ailments is also given, free of charge, by the college physician.

SCHOLARSHIPS

All preliminary correspondence concerning scholarships should be addressed to the President of the College.

It is assumed that requests for scholarships will not be made by those whose expenses can be met by their parents or from other sources.

All scholarships are given for one year only, but, with the exception of II, they may be renewed by the College if the conduct and standing of the recipient be satisfactory.

The Senior Foundation Scholarships will thus be vacated yearly, and about one-fourth of the others.

The following regulations will govern the grant of scholarships:

1. No scholarship will be given to a student who has conditions.
2. No scholarship will be given to a student who is in debt to the College.

I. Corporation Scholarships. Sixteen scholarships of the annual value of $300 each, awarded without application to the four students in each class who have the highest average scholarship. This is determined in the case of upper classmen from their general average for the year. In the case of the incoming Freshman Class the scholarships will be assigned immediately after the June examinations (see page 20) to those candidates entering by either plan of admission who are judged to be best prepared to do the work of the College.

II. Isaiah V. Williamson Scholarships. Two scholarships covering all minimum expenses of board and tuition. One will usually be awarded to a Senior and one to a Junior.

III. Richard T. Jones Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200.

IV. Edward Yarnall Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200. Open to Friends only.

V. Thomas P. Cope Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200. Open to Friends who intend to teach.

VI. Sarah Marshall Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200.

XI. Jacob P. Jones Scholarships. Eight scholarships of the annual value of $100 each.

XII. Caspar Wistar Memorial Scholarship. A scholarship of $250 is annually available, preferably for sons of parents engaged in Christian service, including secretaries of Young Men's Christian Associations, or students desiring preparation for similar service in America or other countries.

XIII. Walter Carroll Brinton Memorial Scholarship. One scholarship of $250.

XIV. J. Kennedy Moorhouse Memorial Scholarship, $300. Special application should be made for this Scholarship, which is intended for the member of the Freshman Class who shall appear best fitted to uphold at Haverford the standard of character and conduct typified by J. Kennedy Moorhouse, of the Class of 1900,—“a man modest, loyal, courageous, reverent without sanctimony; a lover of hard play and honest work, a leader in clean and joyous living.” Special application for this Scholarship should be made before April 15th.

The scholarships named on this and the preceding page are permanent foundations. In addition, the New York Alumni maintain a Freshman scholarship of two hundred dollars ($200) for competition in the New York metropolitan district.

LOAN FUND

A loan fund to the annual amount of $2100 has been placed by the Board of Managers at the service of deserving students other than members of the Freshman Class who may require financial assistance during their college course. Further information concerning this fund may be obtained from the President of the College.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU

In connection with the Dean's office there is an Employment Bureau through which students may be put in touch with many kinds of remunerative employment.

FELLOWSHIPS

The Clementine Cope Fellowship, of the annual value of $700, may be awarded by the Faculty to the best qualified applicant from the Senior Class. He is required to spend the succeeding year in study at some American or foreign university approved by the Faculty.

With the remaining funds from the Clementine Cope Foundation there may be appointed one or more Teaching Fellows, with or without specific duties at Haverford College; or a second Cope Fellow may be appointed with a stipend of $400 or $500 as the residue of the Fund may permit.

Graduate Fellowships. Eight $600 fellowships covering all charges for board, lodging, and fees, with tuition free, offered primarily to the graduates of other Friends' colleges in the United States with permission to study for the Master's degree in any department of Haverford College which may be selected, provided the proposed schedule of study is approved by the Faculty Committee on Advanced Degrees (see page 90).

PRIZES

All prizes awarded in books are marked with appropriate bookplates. As soon as possible after the award a list of standard books, from which selection is to be made, should be submitted for approval to the head of the department awarding the prize. Books selected from the approved list may then be ordered through the College Office or elsewhere. The College grants an average discount of ten per cent on prize books, and supplies the bookplates.

All essays submitted in competition for prizes should be deposited with the Registrar under assumed names, with a sealed envelope containing the writer's real name, before May 1st.

LECTURESHIPS

HVERFORD LIBRARY LECTURES

The income of $10,000, received in 1894 from the estate of Mary Farnum Brown, is available by the terms of the gift "to provide for an annual course or series of lectures before the Senior Class of the College, and other students, on the Bible, its history and literature, and as way may open for it, upon its doctrine and its teaching."

SOCIETIES

A Young Men's Christian Association, organized in 1879, has a membership embracing nearly the whole student body. It holds meetings on Wednesday evenings. These meetings are addressed by prominent speakers from outside the College or by members of the Faculty. The work of the association includes a variety of outside activities, such as boys' work in Preston and Ardmore, Sunday evening discussion groups and the annual campaign in College for contributions to charity.

The Liberal Club is an organization the object of which is to interest men in current problems. Its members try to secure a few well-chosen speakers to address the Club on subjects in the fields of government, economic and social conditions, literature, and art. All meetings are open to the College.

The Scientific Society is an organization with membership drawn from the Faculty and students, having for its object the promotion of interest in general science.

The Radio Club is composed of students interested in radio, either from a technical or a practical viewpoint. It has for its headquarters a fully equipped station of the most modern type for the reception and transmission of messages. The Club owns and operates a broadcasting station, WABQ, wave-length 261 meters. Lectures, concerts, athletic contests, and other programs are broadcast throughout the college year.

The Chemistry Club, including in its membership candidates for Honors and for advanced degrees in chemistry, affords an opportunity of maintaining contact with recent advances of chemistry by discussion of subjects selected from current chemical journals and by trips to industrial chemical plants in the vicinity of Philadelphia.

The Classical Club is composed of members of the Faculty, students, alumni, and others, who are interested in the life and literature of the Greeks and Romans. A Latin play is given every year, and monthly meetings are held for discussions and addresses.

The English Club, membership in which is limited to Faculty, Seniors, and Juniors, promotes the informal discussion of literary topics.

The Press Club is an organization for those who are especially interested either in journalism as a profession or in securing wider publicity for Haverford College. Membership, which is by invitation, is limited to thirty, twenty or more to be members of the three upper classes and the remainder alumni.

A chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, Zeta of Pennsylvania, was established at the College in 1898.

The Founders Club, established in 1914, is an organization of alumni and undergraduates, to which upper classmen become automatically eligible if they attain a grade of at least B in class-room work and take part in a certain number of extra-curriculum activities.

The Cap and Bells Club, composed of both alumni and students, organizes and arranges the musical and dramatic productions of the College.

The Campus Club is an organization of the Faculty, students, and other friends of the College, for promoting the study and preservation of trees, shrubs, and birds on the College property.

PERIODICALS

The Haverford College Bulletin is issued by the College four times in each collegiate year. Included under this title are the College Reports, Catalogue, Athletic Annual, Alumni Quarterly, and other matter.

The Haverford News and The Haverfordian are student publications, the former appearing weekly, and the latter monthly, during the collegiate year.

THOMAS WISTAR BROWN GRADUATE SCHOOL

Founded 1917; discontinued after June, 1927

Founded as the result of a donation of about $400,000, the Thomas Wistar Brown Graduate School is located in a residence on College Lane. The facilities of the School are afforded to graduates of colleges approved by the Faculty. Such graduates may become candidates for the degree of Master of Arts in one or more years upon attaining the proficiency, tested by examinations and theses, required of candidates for the same degree in Haverford College.

In accordance with the expressed approval of the donor, graduate courses are offered in Biblical Literature, Philosophy, Sociology, Economics, History, and "kindred subjects." The scope of the instruction is hence limited to a rather definite preparation for certain lines of usefulness. Since the founding of the School in 1917, about sixty students have taken advantage of the facilities here offered and have later become teachers, social and religious workers, or missionaries.

Fees covering room, board and tuition are $300 a year. There are six full scholarships of $300 offered each year (three of which may be awarded to properly qualified women). Non-resident graduate students may attend a single full course with the consent of the professor in charge on payment of a fee of $25.

Haverford College Athletics

1926-1927

Edited in the Interest of Haverford

Foreword

This has been a wonderful athletic year at Haverford and a vacation period from continuous service enables one to more fully appreciate it.

Football games were scheduled with teams more nearly in our own class,—the season was uniformly successful, and perhaps freedom from the sting of constant defeat gave us time to realize that Harman has done much more than coach Football, in his fine personal influence at Haverford.

The Soccer season was a brilliant one—even our rivals conceded an equal supremacy with Princeton and Penn State, and we would rate the standing higher.

Consistent seasons in Basketball and Baseball were made exceptional by victories over our ancient rival, Swarthmore,—who can recall such an event at Haverford?

The crowning event of the year was the winning of second place in the Middle Atlantic States Track and Field Championships, and with so liberal a margin over college members of our own class. We give Haddleton the place of honor, and niches in the Hall of Fame to Hoskins, McConaghy and Morris in their special record work.

Victory is not all—what a satisfaction it is to see the splendid co-operative spirit at Haverford, from President Comfort and the Faculty down to the promising Freshman candidates in Cricket and Tennis, and one feels, too, that this College is and always will be the center of true athletic sportsmanship.

Your writer acknowledges the tireless service of Graduate Manager Hoopes in compiling these records.

Summary of the Work of the Executive Athletic Committee

The first meeting of the year was held in the Union on October 5th. Dr. Comfort was elected Chairman and S. A. Hoskins, '27, was appointed Secretary for the year. Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Logan were appointed to look into possible revision of the managers' award and the changes necessary in the Constitution to put it into effect. Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Kirk were appointed to consider advisability of change in present system of Cricket awards. It was felt that Haverford should make an effort to fill her quota for the Walter Camp Memorial Fund by using the net gate receipts of the Drexel Football game and by voluntary contributions at the game. An away game with Wesleyan or Amherst on alternate years with the Hamilton game was approved. It was thought desirable to play Swarthmore next year as a mid-season game. The Basketball schedule of fourteen games, including two December games, was approved.

At the second meeting, the Walter Camp Memorial Fund Committee reported that $167.75 had been raised. Action on raising the rest of the quota was deferred.

The new managerial system as recommended by all the athletic departments but Cricket and Tennis concerning electing only one assistant manager instead of two was approved in general but not passed.

Dr. Taylor and Mr. Hoopes were appointed to represent Haverford at the M. A. S. C. A. C. Conference, December 11th. A motion was passed that the incomes from the Skating Pond and the Edward B. Conklin Fund be placed in a special saving fund account to act with other funds as a reserve fund for the Athletic Association Treasury. Soccer and Football awards and elections were approved. Basketball, Football and Tennis schedules were approved.

The third meeting was held March 21st. An amendment to Article II, Sections 2 and 6 of the By-Laws of the Athletic Association was passed. The Walter Camp Memorial Fund Committee was continued. Early Football training at College beginning September 15th was approved. The Baseball schedule was approved. A committee of Dr. Palmer, Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Hoskins was appointed to report on the proposed change in the managerial system.

The last meeting was held May 27th. An amendment concerning the managerial system in Article 10, Sections 1 and 2, of the Constitution of the Athletic Association was passed. This change was made applicable to all elections for the College year 1926-1927. The change in the managers' award was also made retroactive for the year 1926-1927. Baseball, Tennis and Track awards and elections were approved. A report of the progress of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference was made by Mr. Hoopes. After discussion, it was decided that Haverford was not in a position to accept membership at present, although the work of the Conference was highly approved.

Respectfully submitted,

STEWART HOSKINS,
Secretary.

The Athletic Cabinet this year has been working on the fundamental problem suggested by Dr. Babbitt at the opening meeting: How can a better spirit of loyalty to Haverford be secured on the part of students, faculty, and alumni? The lack of interest in the home games, the dissatisfaction of members of the teams in playing through schedules not desired by themselves, and the general faults with the present system of scheduling games were decided upon as prominent points for improvement. The situation in regard to the first has much improved since the general success of the teams this year; a plan has been worked out in regard to the second and third which should eliminate the causes of dissatisfaction. At the close of each season, a meeting of the team concerned is to be held at which next year's members hand in a list of the teams they would like to meet. The manager then works on the basis of these lists, trying to include all the teams wanted and to complete the schedule in time so as not to have to include any last-minute undesirable teams.

The evils of the present managerial system were discussed. It was decided that the bulk of the work should be done by a larger group of sophomore heelers than at present, and that one man only should be elected as assistant manager for junior year and manager during senior year, thus eliminating the present inefficiency and injustice with two assistant managers. Through the Executive Athletic Committee this reform has been instituted.

A committee, headed by Flint, was appointed to secure a list of approved officials to be kept in the graduate manager's office.

in order to remove the possibility of having unsatisfactory referees at home games. This list should become of great value.

Several immediate items of business have been taken care of. At the beginning of the year there was a shortage of football material because of damage done by a broken water pipe in the supply room. A committee was appointed to interview President Comfort and the damage was made good. A more important work was done in securing the permission of Beta Rho Sigma to have the bowling alleys removed and the space used for additional lockers, which were badly needed. This has been done and lockers will be installed during the summer. Space is being left at the upper end for a new supply room more convenient to the teams. The basement of the Chemistry laboratory will now be available as a wrestling and boxing room, a need which had been discussed many times before.

The Trophy Committee, under Heller as chairman, has confined most of its work to the athletic pictures. A vote of the Students' Council was secured whereby it agrees to furnish the money for the lettering and framing of each year's pictures, provided the graduating class of that year will donate the pictures. Missing pictures of several years have been secured, lettered, and framed, and many old pictures taken out of the frame, lettered, and re-framed. As soon as this work is completed, the pictures will be arranged chronologically on the walls of the gymnasium around the running track, so that there will be sufficient space for some years to come.

Intramural athletics were discussed and the system approved as being an essential part of the athletic program. It was arranged for the committee in charge of them to consult Mr. Evans in arranging the schedules so as to work in harmony with him. The needs of the tennis department were also discussed, among them being repairs to the upper courts and the possibility of more courts or of re-laying the present ones beside the Chemistry laboratory, which are practically useless for good tennis.

The situation in regard to the entrance requirements in physical training was discussed, and several plans suggested. It was felt that the faculty should at least recognize a man's physical ability as a factor in his fitness for college work; not to lay too much stress upon this, as some of our finest men have been unable to take part in athletics, but where the decision lies between two men of equal scholastic ability to give preference to the one more physically fit. This will be taken up with next year's Dean of Freshmen.

The question of the athletic building was not brought up, as recommendations as to what is desirable have been completed by last year's Cabinet, and although it was felt that the Cabinet should meet more often, it was not found possible to hold more than three meetings this year.

O. W. Melchior was appointed to serve on the Trophy Committee and carry through the work for next year.

JOHN L. HELLER, Secretary.

 Accounts Receivable, for Alumni Athletic Tickets 1926-27 515.00

Financial Year

Expenses of carrying on the seven major sports have been decreased by almost $2000 during the past year. At the same time the decrease in income has been even greater, there having been no Football games providing large guarantees and no Swarthmore Football game, from which contest considerable revenue has come in the past. The net result has been that the Association has operated at a loss of approximately $1700 during the year, and has reduced its 1926 balance by that amount.

The reduction in expenses has been effected by the elimination of Football camp (saving $1000) and the transfer to the College of the portion of the Football coach's salary heretofore paid by the Athletic Association ($1000).

The Soccer Department has reduced its annual expense by $400, suffering in return the discontinuance of the old Intercollegiate League of six colleges, with its bi-annual Yale, Harvard and Cornell trips. The Track budget was increased by $300 to allow an outstanding team to participate at full strength in the Middle Atlantic States Meet at Schenectady, N. Y.

No great change is noted in the income and disbursements of other departments. Cricket broke into the Medical Expense column for the first time, in many years at least, with an item involving a new set of false teeth for an insufficiently agile official.

The sale of Alumni Athletic Tickets brought in $515, a low mark caused by lack of interest in the schedule of home Football games. An increase in this item is bound to follow in 1927-28 in view of the inevitable reaction on the part of Haverford's athletic following to the very successful record of all departments during the past year, and the attractive schedule of home contests already arranged.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. HOOPES,

Graduate Manager.

Physical Training Program

Physical training is required of both freshmen and sophomores. Three hours a week (one hour for three days) is allotted to this work. The student is graded and receives credit similar to other departments of the college. The chief aim is a harmonious, all-around training in physical activities. Activities are scheduled in season as follows:

Fall

The student may elect either football or soccer. He is assigned to either elementary or varsity squads, depending upon his previous experience and his ability.

Football: In the fall of 1926 there were two football sections, of a total of five teams under the guidance of Coaches Harman, Halas and Haddleton.

Soccer: There were also four sections of soccer, a total of nine teams under the direction of Coaches McPeet, Steel, Evans and Student Coach Shank.

Elementary skills and plays are taught beginners and an examination in rules and elements given at the end of the season. Opportunity is given for advancement to higher squads during the season. Many of Haverford's prominent players have been uncovered in the past as a result of this system.

Winter

In the winter months freshmen and sophomore classes meet in the gymnasium for vigorous calisthenic exercises, and squad apparatus work. Students are assigned to squads depending upon their ability. Examinations are given at regular periods, measuring strength, co-ordination, balance and courage. Those who show sufficient skill may substitute varsity basketball or advanced apparatus work.

Spring

During the spring quarter students may elect baseball or track and field work. Similar to the fall work, students are assigned to varsity or elementary squads and examined in the rudiments. Coaches Haddleton and Evans take care of track and field squads, while Coach Halas and Student Coach Hillier instruct in baseball. Participation in tennis or cricket is permitted providing the players make those squads.

GRADING SYSTEM

Following is the grading system used in fall, winter and spring:

Class work:
Skill and ability	25 %
Improvement (comparative)	12½%
Attitude and effort	12½%
	<hr/>
Class grade	50 %
Examination	50 %
Quarter grade	100 %

Grades of the fall and of the first half of the winter's work are averaged to determine the mid-year grade. The second half of the winter's work and the spring work is averaged to determine the final grade. These grades, therefore, represent a rating of all-around physical qualities rather than of specialized skill.

Those receiving the best all-around rating for the college year 1926 to 1927 are:

Freshman—Class of 1930—Morris, J. H., Supplee, A., Rudrauff, Supplee, H., and Wickersham.

(Signed) ARLINGTON EVANS.

THE VIRGINIA CUP

The Virginia Cup was presented to Haverford College in 1925 by Professor Legh W. Reid, as the following letter will explain:

"HAVERFORD COLLEGE, November 18, 1925.

To the Board of Managers of Haverford College.

DEAR FRIENDS:

Being convinced of the benefit of tennis as an exercise and desiring to promote interest in it at Haverford College, I have provided, with the consent of President Comfort, a cup to be a perpetual championship trophy to be played for each year by the students of the College. I now wish to ask the Corporation of Haverford College to accept this cup, to be its property and to remain in its possession for the purpose here set forth. I desire that the cup be awarded each year to the winner of a tournament arranged as follows:

1. Not more than sixteen players shall be permitted to enter the tournament. The eight members of the first and second tennis teams shall have the right of entry. The conditions for the remaining entries shall be fixed by the student tennis management.
2. All matches shall be the best three out of five sets.
3. The tournament shall be held each year in some week during the month of May.
4. The name of each winner shall be engraved on the cup.

Hoping that this will meet with your approval and that in years to come the cup will bear witness in a slight degree to my interest in this phase of student life at Haverford, I am,

Very respectfully yours,

LEGH W. REID."

It was accepted by the Board of Managers and the first tournament for the championship of the College under the above rules was held. The winner was Phillips Johnson, '25, the score being as follows:

Post, Assistant Professor of Greek, have been absent for the second term. Professor Rufus M. Jones was absent during the first term on special leave on a religious mission in the East which took him around the world. The President of the College was given leave of absence for three and one-half months in order to go upon an educational mission to China on behalf of the Canton Christian College, of which he is a trustee. During his absence Dean Palmer was appointed Acting President.

For 1927-28 leave of absence for the entire year has been granted to Dr. Rayner W. Kelsey, Professor of History, and to Dr. Dean P. Lockwood, Professor of Latin and Librarian. For 1927-28 Dr. William B. Meldrum has been advanced to be John Farnum Professor of Chemistry; Dr. John A. Kelly has been advanced to be Associate Professor of German; Mr. Alfred J. Swan has been reappointed Lecturer on Music; Mr. Henry V. Gummere, of the Class of 1888, has been appointed Lecturer on Astronomy; Mr. Raymond T. Ohl, A.M., has been appointed Instructor in Latin; Mr. Frederic M. Wheelock, A.M., has also been appointed Instructor in Latin; Mr. Thomas M. Lowry, Jr., A.M., has been appointed Lecturer in History and Government, his appointment being in part upon the new William Penn Foundation; Dr. W. W. Thomson has been appointed Instructor in Chemistry in place of Dr. J. C. Forbes, resigned; Mr. H. Tatnall Brown, Jr., of the Class of 1923, has been appointed Dean of Freshmen, Assistant Director of Physical Education and Instructor in French.

During the past year the scale of professors' minimum salaries has been advanced as follows: full professors, from $5,000 to $5,500; associate professors, from $4,000 to $4,500; assistant professors, from $3,000 to $3,300. At the same time the annual rent of college-owned houses occupied by members of the Faculty was advanced $100.

There have been made and there are in prospect some improvements in the physical plant of the College. Lloyd Hall has been extended as originally planned and now encloses the inner campus on the north, the old road in front of Lloyd Hall having been eliminated. The plans of Stewardson and Page have been utilized and a very attractive building was completed in time for occupancy by 32 students. New funds to the extent of about $115,000 are being raised for this building. Through the generous coöperation of Mr. T. Allen Hilles, of the Class of 1870, a Laboratory of Applied Science will be built during the present college year, at a cost of about $100,000. The firm of Mellor, Meigs and Howe has been selected as the architects. Another alumnus, Mr. Edward Woolman, of the Class of 1893, has furnished funds for the erection of a fence to protect our grounds on the eastern boundary extending from the Graduate House on College Lane to the Biddle property on our southern limits.

The housing of Faculty members having caused concern, the Board has authorized the alteration of the large house at No. 1 College Lane to permit of four apartments. These are now occupied, three of them by members of the Faculty. Superintendent R. J. Johnston has had general supervision of these changes and has given the usual care to the grounds and farm. Unfortunately I have to report that the College barn was totally destroyed by fire on the evening of 9th Month 29th. It is believed that the Corporation is protected from loss by full insurance. Through the kind coöperation of the Campus Club, the planting of the Mary

Newlin Smith Memorial Garden has been somewhat transformed to give a better effect at less expense for upkeep, and a high power spraying machine has been bought to take care of our lofty shade trees. The grounds have appeared to unusual advantage during the past season, the Japanese beetle not having yet made its appearance on our property. The roads continue to show the wear of heavy traffic, and it is impossible to preserve a good surface under the conditions which obtain. It is hoped that the new permanent roads recently approved by the landscape architects may soon be built to conform with the requirements of modern vehicles. For this an expenditure of upwards of $50,000 may prove necessary.

The grounds have been used for the entertainment of a Friends' Summer School in last 6th Month, and also for a conference of secondary schools under the direction of the Middle Atlantic Field Council of the Y.M.C.A. in last 4th Month. The use of the fields has been granted to outside teams for cricket games and other athletic purposes, while the swimming pool in the Gymnasium has been used during the summer by the Ardmore Y.M.C.A.

What may prove to be an important decision was taken by the Board during the past year. After ten years of trial, it was decided to apply in a different manner the income of the Moses Brown Fund established by the late T. Wistar Brown for graduate instruction at Haverford College in Biblical Literature, Philosophy and kindred subjects, the latter having been hitherto interpreted as Economics, History and Sociology. The new application of this Fund which goes into effect the current year involves dropping the name of "The T. Wistar Brown Graduate School"; further, standardizing the requirements for the Master's degree, limiting the enrollment to men, and thus saving for other uses the housekeeping expenses required to maintain separate living accommodations for women students. It is believed that this change is more in line with the donor's intention, and that the economic saving proposed will permit of larger expenditures for purely educational purposes, increasing scholarship funds and teaching facilities. Eight scholarships of $600 each have been awarded for this year and are now occupied by men graduates of Guilford, Earlham, Penn, Wilmington and Haverford Colleges. The scholarships will be charged to the Moses Brown Fund and to other Corporation funds, pro rata, in accordance with the subjects elected by the scholarship holders. One floor of the Graduate House will be used this year as a residence by Professor Grant, and the rest of the House will accommodate graduate students and unmarried instructors, who will board in Founders Hall.

There is a growing opinion in academic circles that present patrons should bear their part in the increasing cost of higher education in our country. It may seem best in the near future to ask for an increase in the charge of tuition. It may be pointed out in this connection that the use of loan funds rather than free scholarships is growing in favor. There is always room for the establishment of free scholarships, and funds given for this purpose will of course always continue to be devoted to the purpose specified; but the educational value to the recipient of a loan is coming to be realized more and more. During the past year the Board set aside $2,100 of free Corporation funds to be loaned to needy students and the scholarships on the Jacob P. Jones Fund were reduced by that amount. All of this sum has been loaned during the past year at a low rate of interest and some of it has already been repaid, to be added to the appropriation for loans for 1927-28. If the experiment warrants it, it is possible that an extension of this system of aiding needy students may be later recommended.

The intellectual standards of our instruction as gauged by the records in competition of our recent graduates seem to be effective. Beside a large number of graduate scholarships and fellowships won by recent Haverfordians in eastern universities, several larger awards have been granted our younger graduates by the Ottendorfer Fellowship of New York University involving residence abroad, the French and German Exchange Scholarships, the National Research Council and the American Academy in Rome. We have had a representative at Oxford as a Rhodes scholar practically without interruption since the Trust became operative twenty years ago. The undergraduates have given attention to their customary activities with marked success during the past year. Not only in athletic contests, but in musical and dramatic performances they have acquitted themselves with great credit; their interest in the curriculum and in methods of instruction has shown itself in several definite suggestions which they have discussed with a Faculty committee, and as a result of these discussions certain changes have been urged and adopted. The Faculty appears to be ready to consider favorably any constructive desire of the students which recommends itself to their judgment.

Regarding the financial requirements of the College in the near future and their satisfaction, I must point out again that the normal increase of the Pension Funds will likely not suffice for the drain to which they will be subjected during the next five or ten years. The progress made with the William Penn Foundation, though gratifying in some respects, can hardly be taken as a satisfactory contribution from Philadelphia Friends to a cause which lies near their interests. At the present time about $95,000 has been given or pledged toward the $120,000 required for this Foundation. The indebtedness on Lloyd Hall, to the completion of which Haverfordians have looked forward for two decades, should be speedily removed in order that the interest charges may not have to be carried upon our next year's budget. The possibility of forced re-purchase by the Corporation of privately owned homes on the College campus is from a financial point of view a constant menace which should be foreseen.

The Librarian reports as follows:

HVERFORD COLLEGE

HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION

HAVERFORD COLLEGE was founded in 1833. It owes its origin to the insight and energy of a few members of the Society of Friends from Philadelphia and New York, who, in the spring of 1830, conceived the idea of founding an institution for education in the higher branches of learning. Its object, in the words of the founders, was "to combine sound and liberal instruction in literature and science with a religious care over the morals and manners, thus affording to the youth of our Society an opportunity of acquiring an education equal in all respects to that which can be obtained at colleges."

The founders were incorporated in 1833 under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania into the Haverford School Association, a body now known as the Corporation of Haverford College. This corporation elects a board of managers for the control of its affairs and for the administration of its funds. For the founding of the School sixty thousand dollars was raised; but the sum proved insufficient for its maintenance, and for many years the financial deficit was met by liberal subscriptions of friends.

From 1845 to 1848 the School was closed in order to allow the funds to accumulate and to give time for the collection of an endowment. Since that time, by a number of generous bequests and donations, the amount of invested funds yielding interest has been increased to over four million dollars.

The first building of the College was Founders Hall, erected in 1833. The Observatory was built in 1852, and enlarged in 1883. Alumni Hall was built in 1863, and enlarged in 1898 and 1912 to meet the growing needs of the Library. In 1877 Barclay Hall, a dormitory, was erected by friends of the College. The Mechanical Laboratory was established in 1884, and was provided with a new building in 1890; this was burned down in 1896, and Whitall Hall, a new three-story structure, was built. The old Biological Laboratory was established in 1886; Chase Hall for lectures and recitations, and the old Physical Laboratory were built in 1888. The Cricket Shed was erected in 1893. In more recent years, during a period of rapid development, made possible largely by the general and unflinching co-operation of the alumni, the following additions have been made to the College equipment: in 1899, the Logan and Norris sections of Lloyd Hall, a dormitory; in 1900, a large and well-equipped Gymnasium; in 1903, Roberts Hall, the gift of Lucy Branson Roberts, with College offices and a large auditorium; in 1903, Merion Hall, a dormitory, remodeled from the old Haverford Grammar School building; in 1905, an additional wing to Founders Hall for dining halls and kitchen; in 1906, a permanent building for the heating and lighting plant; in 1907, the enlargement of Merion Hall; in 1909, the Haverford Union, a building presented by Alfred Percival Smith, '84; in 1910, the Lyman Beecher Hall Chemistry Laboratory; in 1912, the Morris Infirmary, given by John T. Morris, '67; in 1913, a new section of Lloyd Hall, given by the estate of the late Justus C. Strawbridge, and a concrete grandstand, the gift of Horace E. Smith, '86; in 1916, the Smith section of Lloyd Hall, from the same donor, and the Kinsey section; in 1917, Isaac Sharpless Hall, for biology and physics; in 1927, completing the dormitory, four additional sections of Lloyd Hall. In addition to these College buildings there are a number of residences on the grounds which are occupied for the most part by professors.

The College has a pleasant and healthful location in the township of Haverford, Delaware County, Pennsylvania, nine miles west of the center of Philadelphia. It is accessible by the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad and by the Philadelphia and Western Railway. The selection of this site is thus described by the first managers: "We wished to procure a farm in a neighborhood of unquestionable salubrity—within a short distance of a Friends' meeting—of easy access from this city at all seasons of the year . . . recommended by the beauty of the scenery and a retired situation." And they reported that they had purchased for the sum of $17,865 "an oblong tract of 198½ acres . . . nearly south of the eight mile stone on the Lancaster Turnpike." This property has since been increased to two hundred and twenty-five acres with an estimated present value of over one and one-half million dollars. While a portion is retained as farm and woodland, a lawn of sixty acres was long ago graded and tastefully planted with trees and shrubs by a landscape gardener, so that the natural beauty of the location has increased with passing years. The grounds include five fields, for cricket, baseball, American Rugby and association football, a running-track, seven tennis courts, and a pond for skating. In 1925 a board track for winter practice was provided.

Parallel with its material growth there have been changes in the inner life of the College which have affected the methods of administration rather than the essential principles on which the institution was founded. It has gradually increased in number of students, but still enjoys the advantages of a small college. From the first it gave instruction of collegiate scope and grade. Accordingly, in 1856, the name was changed from school to college and the right to confer degrees was granted by the Legislature. In 1861 the preparatory department was abolished. General courses are now given in arts and science. The endowment for salaries and pensions enables the College to maintain a faculty of unusual size in proportion to the number of students, and to expend for the instruction, board, and lodging of each student about twice the sum which he pays.

In accordance with the modern ideals of religious and moral education, the students enjoy ample liberty, safeguarded by their wholesome physical life, by the traditions of the College, and by the intimate association with their professors and fellow students. The deep religious spirit bequeathed by the Quaker founders has been carefully cherished, and high ideals of life and conduct are maintained; three times a month the College attends Friends' meeting in a body. The aims of Haverford have been gradually developing and its function is becoming more and more clear—"to encourage the growth, among a limited number of young men, of vigorous bodies, scholarly minds, strong characters, and a real religious experience."

ADMISSION

All applicants for admission to Haverford College, as undergraduates, must present evidence that they have received satisfactory ratings on the College Board examinations required by either one of the systems of admission outlined on pages 18-20. In addition, each candidate must present, on blanks furnished by the College, his school record and a certificate of character signed by the School Principal; also, a health certificate signed by his family physician. Whenever practicable, the College will arrange for the candidate a personal interview with a representative of this institution. Applicants should realize that, in view of the limited enrollment, they are entering a competition for a definite number of vacancies in a select and comparatively small student organization. On the basis of all information available—College Board reports, school record, medical certificate, evidence touching on character and personality—the applicant will be accepted or rejected, and the decision of the Committee on Admissions is final. Since it is desired to admit candidates who are best fitted to profit by the opportunities offered by Haverford College, preference will be given to those with superior records and credentials rather than to those with mere priority of application.

Subject to the final acceptance of the candidate, vacant rooms are assigned in the order in which application blanks (see opposite page), properly filled out, are received by the College Office; consequently candidates are advised to make application two or three years in advance, addressing preliminary correspondence to the President of Haverford College. For the benefit of the candidate in filling out his application blank, it may here be stated that, for resident students, the inclusive price of tuition, board, and room (including heat, light, attendance, and necessary bedroom furniture, i. e.,

Subjects from Group II (including at least two units in each of two languages)*.....	8

The candidate may give evidence of his preparation in these requirements by either of the following plans for admission:

*Students entering in 1929 or thereafter must present for admission at least three units in one foreign language on which College Board Examinations must be passed for admission by either system, and two units in another foreign language.

I. By Examination only. The candidate must take entrance examinations in all the subjects which he presents for admission. He may take examinations in any of these subjects as preliminary examinations a full year or more before he intends to enter college, but for preliminary examinations only the June examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board are accepted. Comprehensive examinations are not accepted in Mathematics; they are accepted in other subjects.

II. By both Examination and Certificate. This system may be employed by school graduates only. The graduate must present, on blanks supplied by the College and signed by the principal of the school which he has attended, a complete record of his work on all subjects during the last four years of preparation, with the time spent and the grade received in each study. This work is expected to include the subjects with a total value of 15 units prescribed on the preceding page.

He must also take entrance examinations in three subjects—English, Mathematics, and one foreign language. The English will be the examination defined as English 2† or English Cp or English 1-2. The Mathematics will be both Mathematics A and Mathematics C. The one foreign language required will be, for the A.B. degree, Latin 1-2-4† and Latin 5†, or Latin Cp4; Greek Cp2 and Greek CpH, or Greek Cp3; for the S.B. degree,* Latin Cp2 or Greek Cp2 or German Cp2 or French Cp2 or Spanish Cp2. Comprehensive examinations only will be offered in September except in Mathematics. Mathematics Cp3 will not be accepted for entrance. These examinations must all be taken and passed at one time either in June or September.

*Special notice is given that in 1929 and thereafter the language examination for entrance to the Science course will be Latin Cp3 or German Cp3 or French Cp3 or Spanish Cp3 or Italian Cp3. See footnote on page 18.

†Discontinued after June, 1928.

On the basis of his certificate and his marks in these examinations the applicant will be either admitted without conditions or rejected with permission to apply again for admission according to either plan.

This plan is intended mainly for good students, who, deciding late in their school courses to enter Haverford, would find it difficult to prepare themselves for examination in all their entrance subjects, but could readily pass a good examination in three fundamental subjects of their school course and present a satisfactory certificate for all of it. Candidates of only average ability and those who can take preliminary examinations in regular order will gain nothing by adopting this plan.

Advanced Standing. On account of limited accommodations it is usually impossible to admit students to other than the Freshman class.

SCHEDULE OF EXAMINATIONS FOR ADMISSION

Applicants for admission to the Freshman Class are expected to take the examinations held by the College Entrance Examination Board in June in many cities. Those who pass these examinations in June will receive first consideration for all Freshman scholarships and for the limited accommodations annually reserved for Freshmen. For information with regard to these examinations address The College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117th Street, New York City.

COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION BOARD

Examinations of June 18-23, 1928

Examinations will be held in nearly 400 towns and cities in the United States and abroad.

Blank forms for the "Application for Examination" and the "Teacher's Recommendation" may be obtained from the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board upon request by mail. The Application should be returned to the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117th Street, New York City. The Recommendation should be sent directly to the Committee on Admission of the college concerned.

If the application be received sufficiently early, the examination fee will be $10.00 for each candidate. The fee, which should accompany the application, should be remitted by postal order, express order, or draft on New York to the order of the College Entrance Examination Board.

Applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined outside of the United States and Canada should reach the Secretary of the Board at least six weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before May 7, 1928. Applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points west of the Mississippi River or in Canada should be received at least four weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before May 21, 1928. Applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points east of the Mississippi River or on the Mississippi River should be received at least three weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before Monday, May 28, 1928.

When a candidate has failed to obtain the required blank form of application for examination, the usual examination fee will be accepted if the fee arrives not later than the specified date accompanied by a memorandum containing the name and address of the candidate, the exact examination center selected, and a list of all the subjects in which he expects to take the Board examinations.

Applications for examinations other than the Scholastic aptitude test (Psychological examination) will be accepted later than the dates named, if in the opinion of the Secretary it is still possible to arrange for the examinations requested, but only upon the payment of an additional fee of $5.00 by each candidate concerned.

The Board will not accept belated applications for the Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Examinations will be held in accordance with the Time (Standard or Daylight Saving) observed in the local public schools. Candidates who are to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test should report to the supervisor of examinations on Saturday, June 23, at 8:45 A.M. No candidate will be admitted to the Scholastic Aptitude Test after 9:00 A. M. At centers where Daylight Saving Time is observed candidates should report at 7:45 A. M. Standard Time and the test will begin at 8:00 A. M. Standard Time.

A list of places at which examinations are to be held in June, 1928, will be published about March 1. Requests that the examinations be held at particular points should be transmitted to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board not later than February 1. The designation of the center to which the candidate will go for examination is an indispensable part of his application for examination.

Detailed definitions of the requirements in all examination subjects are given in a circular of information published annually about December 1 by the College Entrance Examination Board. Upon request a single copy of this document will be sent to any teacher without charge. In general a charge of twenty-five cents, which may be remitted in postage, will be made.

SEPTEMBER EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are held in September at the College for the convenience of emergency cases. They may not be taken as preliminary examinations. No applicant should deliberately postpone his examination until September, as no assurance can be given that he will be admitted, if the capacity of the College has already been reached. The examinations given will be comprehensive examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board except in Mathematics.

In Mathematics candidates will be limited to the College Board examinations designated as Mathematics A, C, D, E. Those who desire to pass either part of Mathematics A can do so only by passing Mathematics A complete.

A fee of ten dollars ($10.00) will be charged each candidate taking these examinations as his first trial for admission to Haverford College; a fee of five dollars ($5.00) will be charged for one or more re-examinations. Fees must be paid to Haverford College before admission to the September College Board examinations.

The schedule of examinations to be held in September, 1928, at Haverford College, is as follows:

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION IN THE
SEVERAL SUBJECTS
ENGLISH

The requirement in English is that recommended by the National Conference on Uniform Entrance Requirements in English.

DEFINITION OF THE REQUIREMENT
FOR 1928

Habits of correct, clear, and truthful expression. This part of the requirement calls for a carefully graded course in oral and written composition, and for instruction in the practical essentials of grammar, a study which ordinarily should be reviewed in the secondary school. In all written work constant attention should be paid to spelling, punctuation, and good usage in general as distinguished from current errors. In all oral work there should be constant insistence upon the elimination of such elementary errors as personal speech-defects, foreign accent, and obscure enunciation.

Ability to read with intelligence and appreciation works of moderate difficulty; familiarity with a few masterpieces. This part of the requirement calls for a carefully graded course in literature. Two lists of books are provided from which a specified number of units must be chosen for reading and study. The first contains selections appropriate for the earlier years in the secondary school. These should be carefully read, in some cases studied, with a measure of thoroughness appropriate for immature minds. The second contains selections for the closer study warranted in the later years. The progressive course formed from the two lists should be supplemented at least by home reading on the part of the pupil and by class-room reading on the part of

DESCRIPTION OF THE RESTRICTED EXAMINATIONS,
1923-1928

English 1-2—Grammar, Composition, and Literature (three units)
English 1*—Grammar and Composition (two units)
English 2*—Literature (one unit)

The examination will be in two parts. * The first part, on Grammar and Composition, will test powers of correct, clear, truthful expression. The candidate will write one or more compositions several paragraphs in length. For this purpose a list of eight or ten subjects will be provided. These will be suggested in part by the books recommended for reading, but a sufficient number from other sources will make it possible for the candidate to draw upon his own experience and ideas. He will not be expected to compose at a more rapid rate than three hundred fifty words an hour, but his work must be free from common errors in grammar, idiom, spelling, and punctuation, and should show that he understands the principles of unity and coherence. In addition, questions will be asked on the practical essentials of grammar, such as the construction of words and the relation of various parts of a sentence to one another.

The second part, on Literature, will test the faithfulness with which the candidate has studied the works recommended for study and his ability to grasp quickly the meaning of a passage of prose or verse that he has not previously seen and to answer simple questions on its literary qualities. No candidate will be passed on this part of the examination whose work shows serious defects in composition.

In connection with the second part of the Restricted Examination the candidate will be required to submit a statement certified by his principal specifying what books he has read during his secondary school course, and indicating the quality and character of his spoken English.

*After 1928 the restricted examination will not be divided. It seems important, therefore, to warn candidates against taking English 1. in 1928 with the expectation of taking English 2 in 1929.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION IN ENGLISH (three units)

The purpose of this examination will be to test the ability of the candidate to define clearly in writing ideas gained both from books and from the life around him, and to read with accuracy and appreciation literature as varied in subject matter and form as that listed under "Uniform Entrance Requirements in English." Accuracy in the technique of writing will be insisted upon, but no paper will be considered satisfactory which does not show, in addition to this accuracy, that the student is able to think for himself and to apply what he has learned to the solution of unexpected problems. Although knowledge of the subject matter of the particular books prescribed in the "Uniform Entrance Requirements in English" is not necessary, yet the requisite ability cannot be gained without a systematic and progressive study of good literature.

A candidate whose certificate entitles him to apply for admission "by both examination and certificate" (see p. 19) may take either English 2 or the Comprehensive Examination in English. The latter, while difficult, does offer certain advantages to one whose study of literature has not been based on the books listed for special study in English 2.

MATHEMATICS

The definition of the requirements in Mathematics is the same as that of the College Entrance Examination Board.

Mathematics A1—Algebra: to Quadratics.

LATIN*

I. Amount and Range of the Reading Required

(1) The Latin reading, without regard to the prescription of particular authors and works, shall be not less in amount than Cæsar, Gallic War, I-IV (for two-year Latin);

*Based on Document 120 of the College Entrance Examination Board. It should be noted that in 1927 and thereafter only comprehensive examinations will be given in Latin and that a new statement of requirements will go into effect.

Cicero, the orations against Catiline, for the Manilian Law, and for Archias (for third year Latin); Vergil, Æneid, I-IV (for fourth year Latin).

(2) The amount of reading specified above shall be selected by the schools from the following authors and works: Cæsar (Gallic War and Civil War) and Nepos (Lives); Cicero (Orations, Letters, and De Senectute) and Sallust (Catiline and Jugurthine War); Vergil (Bucolics, Georgics, and Æneid) and Ovid (Metamorphoses, Fasti, and Tristia).

II. Scope of the Examinations

(1) Translation at Sight. Candidates will be examined in translation at sight of both prose and verse. The vocabulary, construction, and range of ideas of the passages set will be suited to the preparation secured by the reading indicated above.

(2) Prescribed Reading. Candidates for third and fourth year Latin will be examined also upon the following prescribed reading:

In 1926, 1927, and 1928. Cicero, the first oration against Catiline, the oration for Archias, and the impeachment of Verres, Actio Secunda, IV, ch. 52-60 (The Plunder of Syracuse); Virgil, Æneid, III and VI; Ovid, Metamorphoses, Book I, 313-415 (Deucalion and Pyrrha); II, 1-328 (Phaethon); VII, 1-158 (The Golden Fleece); VIII, 616-724 (Philemon and Baucis); X, 560-680 (Atalanta's Race).

Accompanying the different passages will be questions on subject-matter, literary and historical allusions, and prosody. Every paper in which passages from the prescribed reading are set for translation will contain also one or more passages for translation at sight; and candidates must deal satisfactorily with both these parts of the paper, or they will not be given credit for either part.

(3) Grammar and Composition. The examination in grammar and composition will demand thorough knowledge of all regular inflections, all common irregular forms, and the ordinary syntax and vocabulary of the prose authors read in school, with ability to use this knowledge in writing simple Latin prose.

III. Subjects for Examination

(a) For those who offer a total of 2 units in Latin for 2 points credit.

Latin Cp2. This examination will presuppose reading not less in amount than Cæsar, Gallic War, I-IV, selected by the schools from Cæsar (Gallic War and Civil War), and Nepos (Lives); but the passages set will be chosen with a view to sight translation. The paper will include easy grammatical questions and some simple composition.

(b) For those who offer 4 units in Latin (or 3 units, if the Vergil or Cicero be omitted).

*Latin 1-2-4. Grammar, Elementary Composition, Latin Prose Authors—Prescribed Selections and Sight Translation.

*Latin 5. Latin Poets—Prescribed Selections and Sight Translation

BOTANY

One year of text-book and laboratory work is required. The student will be expected to have a fairly definite knowledge of the seed and seedling, root, stem, and leaf, the flower and fruit, the cell, and the natural history and classification of plants.

CHEMISTRY

The requirements in chemistry comprehend systematic instruction in the occurrence, preparation, properties and uses of some of the commoner elements, including hydrogen, oxygen, carbon, chlorine, sulfur and nitrogen, and their compounds, and in the simpler physico-chemical theories and laws, including the atomic theory, the gas laws, and the laws of chemical combination. This is to be accompanied by an adequate course of experiments performed by the student.

PHYSICS

The requirement is one year's work, covering mechanics, sound, heat, light, magnetism, and electricity. Emphasis will be laid upon the solution of problems. At least two hours per week of laboratory work must be included.

COURSE OF STUDY

The course of study includes both required and elective subjects, thus combining the breadth of knowledge and culture that comes from varieties of studies with opportunity for concentration on limited fields. In addition to a general course in arts or in science, by proper choice of electives more specialized courses can be taken in preparation for professions as described on pages 39-43.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR BACHELOR'S DEGREE

Languages. No student is graduated who cannot write a creditable style extemporaneously. English and a course in one foreign language must be taken in Freshman year. Candidates for the A.B. degree must take either Greek or Latin in both Freshman and Sophomore years; they must complete either Latin 2 or Greek 1 and in addition either French 1 or German 1 or Spanish 1 or Latin 1 or Greek 1 or the equivalent. Candidates for the S.B. degree must complete either French 2 or German 2 and in addition either French 1 or German 1 or Spanish 1 or Latin 1 or Greek 1 or the equivalent. Three units of entrance credit in a language are equivalent to a 1-course, except in Latin.

Mathematics. Mathematics 1 and 1' must be taken in Freshman year.

Science. One laboratory course in biology, chemistry, or physics is required of all students before graduation.

Economics, Biblical Literature, Psychology and Ethics. The required courses in these subjects are specified on page 44.

Majors and Minors. In order to encourage proper concentration it is required that after Freshman year at least three full courses be taken in one department and at least two full courses in each of two other departments. The three courses must be distributed over at least two years. In fulfilment of this requirement no account shall be taken of courses intended primarily for Freshmen (namely, Biology 1a, Engineering 1 and 1', English 1, French A, German A, Mathematics 1 and 1', Physics A) even though these courses be taken after Freshman year.

The Major must be stated in the schedule filed by the student at the end of his Sophomore year. Before filing this schedule the student is urged to consult an instructor in the department in which he proposes to take his Major with regard to both Majors and Minors and the proper correlation of his course of study as a whole.

Maximum and Minimum Schedule. The minimum schedule for any student is five courses, except that, in addition, Sophomores are required to take Physical Training and Freshmen are required to take Physical Training and Biology 1a. Not more than one additional course may be taken in any half-year, except by special permission of the Dean.

Conflicting Courses. A student is not allowed to elect conflicting courses, except with the permission of the Dean and the two instructors concerned.

SPECIAL PLANS OF STUDY IN PREPARATION FOR PROFESSIONS

A large and increasing number of Haverford College students desire on graduation to enter upon courses of study fitting them for professions. For students desiring intensive preliminary training in engineering, medicine, and other highly specialized subjects, the College offers combinations of courses which admit to the best professional schools in the country with full standing, and in many cases with advanced credit.

To illustrate this feature of the curriculum there are presented on the following pages sample outlines of study for the four years, preparatory to specialization in Engineering, Medicine, Law, and Business Administration. Similar outlines might be prepared for other professions,—teaching, the ministry, journalism, industrial chemistry, etc. The student will in all cases consult with his Faculty Adviser and the professors concerned in his choice of courses. In addition to the courses given in the schedule, there are elective honor courses in which the student receives individual attention in advanced work to suit his particular needs.

N. B.—It is understood that each of the outlines following is a sample only, presenting one among many possibilities, and is not intended to be a prescribed program.

Preparation for Engineering.

Engineering today covers an extremely broad field of service, and there is accordingly no standard type of training suitable for all students preparing themselves for an engineering career.

Students not intending to enter the highly specialized fields of design and research will find the Haverford course ample for their needs. Graduates of Haverford who have majored in engineering are admitted to the student-engineers' courses of the leading industrial companies on equal terms with graduates of the larger engineering colleges.

Those men who desire to specialize on the technical side of engineering and who are planning to continue their professional work at another school, will, ordinarily, elect only those engineering courses that are required for the first two years of the particular school to which they are going.

A course in General Engineering similar to those variously announced as "Engineering Administration," "Commercial Engineering," etc., is outlined in the following pages. In addition to the outline following, other combinations of studies may be arranged to meet special needs. In this outline the major is engineering and the minors, economics and mathematics.

Preparation for Medicine. Owing to the increased admission requirements of the medical schools it is necessary for a student intending to study medicine to plan his college course carefully in order to avoid conflicts between necessary courses and to avoid overloading with laboratory courses in his junior and senior years. All of the leading medical schools require the equivalent of the following Haverford courses: English 1, Biology 2, Chemistry 1, 2a, 3b and 4, Physics A and 1, and either French or German A and 1. Johns Hopkins University requires both French and German and also elementary Latin. The University of Pennsylvania requires an additional course in English. In addition to these courses, medical school authorities advise certain other courses in pre-medical sciences.

*Required of all students.

A prospective physician should ordinarily make his major either biology or chemistry and one of his minors chemistry or biology. A student who already has a good educational background may elect certain advanced courses in biology which actually anticipate the work of a medical school, and may thus enter his medical course with special advantages.

It is possible for a student to graduate from Haverford with either the A.B. or the S.B. degree and fulfill all the requirements for admission to medical school. In the sample pre-medical schedule given below, the major is biology and the minors are chemistry and physics.

There are no particular studies indicated as entrance requirements by the law schools, though in some cases the applicant must hold a college degree. PROFESSOR WATSON.

ENGINEERING

The engineering courses are designed to give a thorough training in fundamental engineering principles and, as far as practicable, to illustrate the application of these principles to their associated industries.

Exceptional facilities for observing the practical side of the work are offered by the many manufacturing companies in and near Philadelphia, and frequent inspection trips are made.

The lack of a general or broad education and of thoroughness in fundamentals has been universally recognized as limiting the usefulness and opportunities of many in the engineering profession. To provide against these deficiencies students electing courses in engineering will be required to pursue studies of a general nature (history, ethics, economics, languages, etc.) throughout the four years, and to concentrate largely on mathematics, physics, and chemistry, the fundamentals of all engineering. This combination of breadth with thorough groundwork prepares the way for the highest professional development.

By a careful selection of electives from the several departments, a student should be able to meet the fundamental requirements of any branch of engineering activity which he may later undertake.* For the needs of those desiring more specialized courses before entering the active work of the profession, very favorable arrangements may be made with technical institutions, all of which grant substantial credit toward advanced standing for work completed at Haverford.

The wood-working and metal-working shops, the laboratory for testing materials and the draughting-room are housed in Whitall Hall. A complete equipment is provided for carrying on bench and machine-tool work in both wood and metal. Steam-engine indicators, standard pressure gauges, calorimeters and electrical measuring-instruments, in connection with the central heating and lighting plant, afford good opportunity for the testing of boilers, engines, air-compressors, dynamos and auxiliaries. A 30,000-pound Riehle screw testing-machine is part of the equipment for testing materials and for studying the laws of stress and strain. The equipment of the draughting-room includes a number of pieces for study and sketching, such as pumps, safety-valves, shaft-hangers, etc.

The electrical engineering laboratory occupies the first floor of the west wing of Founders Hall. The apparatus in this laboratory was selected to illustrate the modern applications as well as the fundamental principles of the science and includes many types of generators and motors, both alternating and direct; a complete line of measuring instruments; lamps, galvanometers; bridges, standards, etc. Direct and alternating currents of all necessary varieties are available for tests and calibrations.

Courses 1, 2b, and 3 are given, normally, in the first or second half-year, as indicated by a or b, but may be elected when the student is properly qualified, in either half-year. Special courses in shop methods, in drawing, in descriptive

1. History and Appreciation of Music. The purpose of this course is, on the one hand, to show the close connection of all great music, in its manifold aspects, with the general progress of western culture, and on the other, to give the student a thorough practical knowledge of the foundations upon which musical works of art are constructed. The period of history treated is from about A.D. 1150 to 1800, and the analysis comprises folk songs, plain chant and the songs of the troubadours (melody, rhythm), the vocal music of the Flemings and Italians (polyphony), and the instrumental music from Monteverdi to the early Beethoven (harmony).

PHYSICAL TRAINING

The college equipment for outdoor athletics includes: Walton Field for Rugby football and track sports, with a concrete grandstand and 440-yard oval and 220-yard straightaway cinder tracks; the Class of 1888 and Merion Fields for Association football; a twelve-lap winter board track; a skating pond; Cope Field for cricket, with players' pavilion and shed for winter practice; a new baseball field, presented by the Class of 1922; and seven tennis courts.

The Gymnasium contains a main floor, sixty by ninety feet, equipped with the most improved appliances for American and Swedish gymnastics. It has an inclined running track, five feet in width. Adjoining the main floor are offices for the use of the directors in physical examination and measurement, and for special student conferences. Adjoining the main hall is a large and comfortable reading-room. Above are a trophy room and apartments for the use of the College athletic managers and alumni. The basement contains dressing-rooms, a number of well-ventilated lockers, shower-baths, a swimming pool, and storage room for athletic equipment. There is a special dressing-room provided for the Faculty and visiting athletic teams.

A thorough physical examination with a series of efficiency tests is given to each student upon entrance, and another at the end of the Sophomore year. No student whose physical condition is unsatisfactory will be permitted to represent the College on any athletic team. Ability to swim two lengths of the gymnasium pool is required of Sophomores before leaving the required Physical Training Course. A certificate stating that the student has been vaccinated within the two years previous to entrance is required of all students upon entering Haverford College.

Course 1 is required of Freshmen in connection with Biology 1*a* (see page 48), Course 2 of Sophomores. Course 3 is elective for Seniors and Juniors, but it may be substituted for Course 2 by Sophomores who pass qualification tests at stated periods.

These courses are arranged in accordance with the plan for all-year physical training during Freshman and Sophomore years.

Physical Training 1. A course of instruction in athletic games, partly elective, first and fourth quarters, and in systematic gymnastic training (calisthenics, marching, and apparatus work), second and third quarters.

3 hours, entire year

DR. BABBITT and MR. EVANS.

Physical Training 2. A course of instruction in athletic games, partly elective, first and fourth quarters, and in advanced gymnastic training, second and third quarters.

3 hours, entire year

DR. BABBITT and MR. EVANS.

Physical Training 3. Elective practice in advanced gymnastic work; track, soccer and cricket practice with team squads. The former is open to members of the Faculty.

DR. BABBITT and MR. EVANS.

PHYSICS

The Department of Physics has at its disposal the electrical laboratory in Founders Hall, and occupies two floors in Isaac Sharpless Hall. All the rooms are equipped with direct and alternating current, compressed air and vacuum connections.

Physics A, intended for those who have never studied physics before, covers the same ground as Entrance Physics; and one or the other of these courses is a prerequisite for Physics 1. Physics 1 covers the work required for admission to medical schools and other graduate institutions. Engineering 10 and 11 are counted as courses in Physics for the purpose of satisfying curriculum requirements.

A. Elementary Physics. The student is made familiar with physical laws and their applications to daily life, and receives sufficient preparation to enable him to pursue the subject further. Emphasis is laid on the solution of problems. There are two lectures or recitations and one laboratory period each week. Text-book, Black and Davis, Practical Physics.

Lectures, M. S. 11.30; laboratory, Tu. or F. 1.05-3.30

MR. VOGEL

1. General Physics. This course is open to those who have offered physics for entrance to College or have passed Physics A. Mechanics, sound, heat, light, magnetism, and electricity are studied with the help of problems and lecture demonstrations. A feature of this course is the laboratory work, the chief aim of which is accuracy of observation and of measurement. The text-book is Weld and Palmer, Text-book of Modern Physics.

Lectures, Tu. Th. S. 9.30; laboratory, W. or Th. 1.05-3.30

PROFESSOR PALMER and MR. VOGEL.

3. Ions, Electrons, Radiotrons and Atomic Structure. A large amount of reading supplementary to the lectures is required in the library of reference books. Experiments are performed by the class as a whole upon such subjects as: measurement of atomic and molecular dimensions, weight, and numbers; magnitude of charge and ratio $E \div M$ for electrolytic ions; $e+m$ for cathode rays; properties of gaseous ions; measurement of the electronic charge e by Millikan's oil-drop method; current and space charge in an electron tube; photo-electric effect; radiation and ionization potentials; X-ray spectra; rate of decay of thorium emanation, and of the active deposit from radon; counting the alpha particles from a specimen of polonium.

The latter part of the course is devoted to a summary of the electron theory of matter, including Bohr's theory of atomic structure.

M. W. F. 9.30

PROFESSOR PALMER.

10. Physics Seminar. This course may be taken as Honors work. Reading will be assigned upon selected topics. Advanced students who devote the requisite number of hours to it may count this course toward a degree. Experimental work of a nature preliminary to research work may be carried out in a special field of investigation.

Hours to be arranged

PROFESSOR PALMER.

Courses 2 and 5 are half-year courses, and may be offered in either half-year according to the needs of those electing them. Hours to be arranged.

LIBRARY

The College Library now contains over one hundred thousand volumes, besides numerous classified but uncatalogued pamphlets. It has been selected and arranged with the object of making it especially useful to college professors and students. All have free access to the shelves and are permitted to withdraw from the Library any volume except those reserved for special reasons. The Librarian and assistants will do anything they can to help readers to use the Library intelligently and independently.

About seven thousand dollars is expended yearly for the purchase of books and periodicals. The Library is a regular government depository and receives from other sources many substantial gifts and bequests.

The collection of Quaker literature is probably the most complete in America. The William H. Jenks collection of Friends' tracts, mostly of the seventeenth century, numbers about fifteen hundred separately bound titles.

The Library possesses the fine Harris collection of over sixty Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Arabic, Syriac and Ethiopic manuscripts collected by J. Rendel Harris; a collection of more than four hundred Babylonian clay tablets dating from B. C. 2500; and seven hundred reproductions in fictile ivory of ancient and medieval carved ivories.

Over two hundred literary and scientific periodicals are taken, besides many annual reports, year-books and irregular continuations.

The Library is open, with some exceptions, on week days from 8.30 A. M. to 10 P. M., and on Sundays from 3 to 10 P. M. While designed especially for the use of the officers and students, it affords to others the privilege of consulting and, under certain restrictions, of withdrawing books.

THE CHARLES ROBERTS AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION

This autograph collection, formed by the late Charles Roberts of Philadelphia, a graduate (1864) and for many years a manager of the College, was in 1902 presented to the College by his wife, Lucy B. Roberts. It consists of more than 11,000 items, embracing not only autograph letters of European and American authors, statesmen, scientists, ecclesiastics, monarchs, and others, but also several series of valuable papers on religious and political history. The general exhibit room is open daily under the care of Miss Hewitt. Special papers from the vault may be inspected on application to Professor Kelsey.

GRADING OF STUDENTS

In determining the standing of the student, daily recitations, hour examinations, and final examinations are all considered.

Students are marked on a scale of 100, and are grouped in 5 sections. Section A indicates a grade of 90 or over, B of 80 to 90. In the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes section C indicates a grade of 70 to 80, D of 60 to 70, E of 50 to 60, F of less than 50. In the Freshman class section C indicates a grade of 65 to 80, D of 50 to 65, E of 35 to 50, F of less than 35. Students in Sections E and F fail to pass.

Sophomores are required to obtain an average grade of 65, or over, for promotion to the Junior class; Juniors and Seniors are required to obtain an average grade of 70, or over, for promotion to the Senior class and for graduation, respectively.

HONORS

Honors are awarded for excellence in the studies of single departments. They are never given merely for performance of routine work in courses, but a considerable amount of extra work is demanded in every case.

Honors are of three kinds:

(a) Honorable Mention, to be awarded for work in a single course meeting not less than two hours per week throughout the year, plus additional work to the total amount of not less than 75 hours. Candidates for Honorable Mention must obtain the grade of A in the regular work of the course and pass creditably an examination on the additional work required. Two half-courses in the same department may be construed as a single course. Honorable Mention will be awarded for work in History 2a, or Economics 1b, provided the foregoing requirements as to grade and additional work are satisfied. History 2a may be counted as a full course for Preliminary Honors taken at the end of the Sophomore year.

(b) Preliminary Honors, to be awarded at the end of the Sophomore, Junior, or Senior year for not less than two full courses in a single department, plus additional work to the total amount of not less than 150 hours. Candidates for Preliminary Honors must obtain a grade of at least B in all courses required for such honors (see page 85) and a grade of A in such of these courses as are taken in the year in which they are candidates, and must pass creditably examinations on the additional work required.

(c) Final Honors, to be awarded upon graduation for work in the courses of a single department, plus additional work to the total amount of not less than 250 hours. Candidates for Final Honors must take at least four full courses in the department in which they apply for honors, at least two of these courses being in the Junior and Senior years. They must in all of these courses obtain a grade of at least

B and in those taken in the Senior year a grade of A, and must pass creditably examinations on the additional work required. There are three grades of Final Honors: Honors, High Honors, and Highest Honors. The requirements for High Honors are of a more exacting nature than those for Honors, and Highest Honors are reserved for very exceptional cases. Both High Honors and Highest Honors are awarded only by special vote of the Faculty.

A student who has received the prescribed grade in the regular work of a course required for Honors, but who has not done the additional work required in connection with such course, may, with the consent of the professor in charge, make up his deficiency in a later year, but in the case of Final Honors all such deficiencies must be made up by the end of the Junior year.

Seniors who are candidates for Final Honors, if their work has been well above the average for the first three years, may be permitted, on recommendation of a member of the department in which Final Honors are being taken, and by vote of the Faculty, to take only four scheduled courses in order to have more time for such work as may be required for Final Honors. The total work of the Senior year shall be not less than the equivalent of five full-year courses plus the usual work required during the Senior Year for Final Honors.

At the time of the award of Honors there shall be added to the general average for the year of each student receiving Honors, one-half of one per cent for each award of Honorable Mention, Preliminary Honors, or Final Honors. In any given year only one such addition may be made to a student's grade for work in any one subject.

DEFICIENT STUDENTS

A student with an entrance condition (except English, to be removed by obtaining a grade of 65, or better, in either half-year of Freshman English) will be given opportunities for its removal at the regular College Board entrance examinations in June and September only. A fee of $5, to be paid before admission to the entrance examinations, is required by the College for September re-examinations.

A student who obtains grade E (35 to 50 for Freshmen; 50 to 60 for upper-classmen) as his half-year mark in any course is allowed a re-examination in the September following the failure (on the Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday immediately preceding the opening of College); for failures during the Senior year, re-examinations will be given in June during Commencement week. Re-examinations (at a fee of $5 per half course) are scheduled only upon written request received by the Registrar before September tenth, upon which date copies of the re-examination Schedule will be mailed to all applicants, and after which date no additional subjects will be scheduled. A student who obtains grade F (below 35 for Freshmen; below 50 for others) as his half-year mark in any course, is not permitted to take a re-examination in that course.

A student with F as his half-year grade, or with E as his half-year grade in any course after the re-examination privilege has lapsed, must repeat the course if it is a required course (repeated courses take precedence in the case of conflict, and are recorded and averaged in the year of repetition), or may substitute some other course if the failure is in an elective course. No course may be repeated more than once; failure to pass a repeated required course will consequently prevent a student from obtaining his degree.

A fee of $15 per half-year is charged for all repeated or substituted courses and for any course dropped after two weeks.

A student who is repeating a course, or is substituting one (unless he has an extra course to his credit), or who has conditions in excess of two half courses, or is carrying an entrance condition after Freshman year, shall have his name appear in the student list of the current Catalogue marked with an asterisk (*) to indicate that he is not in full class standing.

Sophomores are required to obtain an average grade of 65, or over, for promotion to the Junior class; Juniors and Seniors are required to obtain an average grade of 70, or over, for promotion to the Senior class and for graduation, respectively. A Sophomore who fails to attain promotion average, and who has not more than two failures, may have the privilege of taking re-examinations in the two half courses in which he has received the lowest grades, provided that these grades be better than F. A Senior or Junior who fails to attain promotion average, and who has not more than one failure, may take a re-examination in the half course in which he has received the lowest grade, provided that this grade be better than F.

Any student whose record is such as to justify the belief that he is not availing himself of the opportunities offered by Haverford College may be dropped. Usually a student who has more than two half courses of failures against him at the opening of College in September will be dropped.

DEGREES

BACHELOR OF ARTS AND BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

Students who have received credit for the full number of courses in prescribed and elective studies, provided they have for the Junior and Senior years a combined average of C, or above, are granted the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science. For the difference in the requirements for the two degrees see page 38. The fee for the Bachelor's degree is fifteen dollars.

MASTER OF ARTS

Admission to Candidacy. Graduates of Haverford College or of an institution of equivalent standing, who present satisfactory evidence of character, seriousness of purpose, and scholarly attainments, may be admitted as candidates for the degree of Master of Arts or Master of Science. Application for candidacy should be made on a blank which may be obtained from the Registrar. The application of a graduate of an institution other than Haverford College should be accompanied by a certified list of the applicant's courses and grades as an undergraduate, three letters concerning the character, personality, and qualifications of the applicant, and a copy of the catalogue of the institution in which the applicant was an undergraduate. This material should be in the hands of the President before May 1st to secure consideration before the end of June. Applications received after May 1st may not be passed upon before the opening of college in September. Inquiries should be addressed to the President of Haverford College, Haverford, Pa.

Requirements. A candidate who is well prepared for advanced study in his special field is required to pass with a grade of not less than B four advanced courses and to do satisfactorily additional intensive work, equivalent at least to a full course, which may take the form of a thesis or other research. At least two of the courses and the additional intensive work must be in the same field and the remaining courses in allied subjects. A plan of study should be drawn up by the candidate in consultation with the instructor with whom he proposes to do the major part of his work. This plan must be submitted for approval before October 1st to the Chairman of the Committee on Advanced Degrees. After approval by this Committee, the program must be filed with the Registrar.

A minimum of one year's residence is required, and a candidate if well prepared should be able to complete his work for the degree in this time. If his preparation is inadequate, a longer period of residence may be necessary.

Charges. The fee for the degree is twenty dollars. The charges in the Graduate Department are: board, $250; lodging, $250; tuition, $350. Eight scholarships covering all charges are available annually. Application for these should be made to the President of Haverford College before May 1st.

Courses Offered. The following courses are open to graduate students: Astronomy 3a, 3b; Biblical Literature 6; Biology, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8a, 9b, 10a, 11b; Chemistry 4, 5a, 6, 7, 8b; Economics 2a, 3b, 4, 5, 6, 7; English 7a, 8b, 11a, 12a, 12b, 13a, 14b, 15b, 16'a, 16'b, 17a, 18a, 21b, 22b; French 4, 5a, 5b; History, 4, 5, 7; Italian 1; Mathematics 5, 6, 7, 8; Music 2b; Philosophy 2b, 4, 5. Additional work may be required of graduate students in any of these courses. Certain other courses may be taken by graduate students as subsidiary to their major field of work, with the consent of the Committee on Advanced Degrees and the instructor in charge.

ROOMS

Entering Freshmen are assigned rooms in the order in which their application blanks for admission (see page 16) are received. It is, of course, not always possible to meet the desire of Freshmen for the cheapest rooms. Twelve of the $675 rooms are regularly reserved for Freshmen. The College assumes that a new student will accept any available room of approximately the same price as the room for which a preference is expressed. The choice of rooms by other students is governed by published rules.

A deposit of $15 is required of all students, old and new, before a room is reserved. In case the student occupies the room, the amount will be deducted from his bill for the following year; otherwise it will be forfeited, unless the student be excluded by the College for failures or other sufficient reason.

EXPENSES

The combined charge for tuition ($350), board ($250), and room-rent ($75 to $200, according to location), varies from $675 to $800 a year. This includes heat, electric light, attendance and the use of necessary bedroom furniture, i. e., a chiffohier and a bed, the linen for which is furnished and laundered by the College. Students will supply their own study furniture. In general two students share one study and each has his private bedroom adjoining. A few single rooms are also available. The number of students accommodated in the different halls is as follows:

Merion Hall,	9 at $675 each
Merion Hall,	10 at $700 each
Merion Hall,	16 at $725 each
Merion Hall,	4 at $750 each

Founders Hall,	8 at $675 each
Founders Hall,	14 at $700 each
Founders Hall,	3 at $725 each
Founders Hall,	4 at $775 each
Barclay Hall,	23 at $675 each
Barclay Hall,	2 at $700 each
Barclay Hall,	3 at $725 each
Barclay Hall,	27 at $750 each
Barclay Hall,	49 at $775 each
Lloyd Hall,	66 at $750 each
Lloyd Hall,	32 at $800 each

The charge for tuition of day-students is $350 a year; for tuition and mid-day meal, $430 a year. A laboratory fee (averaging five to ten dollars per half-year) and the cost of materials consumed and of apparatus broken are charged in each of the laboratories. For fees in the Graduate Department, see page 89; for the Bachelor's degree, page 88.

The Board of Managers requires that first half-year bills (rendered October first) for three-fifths of the student's total cash indebtedness for the current year for room, board, and tuition must be paid in full before November first. Second half-year bills (rendered February first) must be paid in full before March first. Failure to pay within the specified time automatically cancels the student's registration.

A student is held financially responsible for any damage to his room.

THE MORRIS INFIRMARY

The Morris Infirmary, presented by John T. Morris, '67, has been in operation since the fall of 1912. It contains ten beds, a surgical room, an isolation ward for contagious diseases, and accommodations for physician and nurse. Every provision has been made for medical and surgical treatment of all cases among students during the college year. The danger of infection through illness in the college dormitories is thus minimized.

No charge is made for the attendance of the regular nurse. Medical attendance for brief ailments is also given, free of charge, by the college physician. On the staff are:

DR. BABBITT, Medical Director;

DR. TAYLOR, Assistant College Physician;

MABEL S. BEARD, Head Nurse.

SCHOLARSHIPS

All preliminary correspondence concerning scholarships should be addressed to the President of the College.

It is assumed that requests for scholarships will not be made by those whose expenses can be met by their parents or from other sources.

All scholarships are given for one year only, but, with the exception of II, they may be renewed by the College if the conduct and standing of the recipient are satisfactory.

Thus about one-fourth of the scholarships will be vacated yearly.

The following regulations will govern the grant of scholarships:

1. No scholarship will be given to a student who has conditions.

2. No scholarship will be given to a student who is in debt to the College.

I. Corporation Scholarships. Sixteen scholarships of the annual value of $300 each, awarded without application to the four students in each class who have the highest average scholarship. This is determined in the case of upper classmen by their general average for the year. In the case of the incoming Freshman Class the scholarships will be assigned immediately after the June examinations (see page 20) to those candidates entering by either plan of admission who are judged to be best prepared to do the work of the College.

II. Isaiah V. Williamson Scholarships. Two scholarships covering minimum expenses of board and tuition. One will usually be awarded to a Senior and one to a Junior.

III. Richard T. Jones Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200.

IV. Edward Yarnall Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200. Open to Friends only.

V. Thomas P. Cope Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200. Open to Friends who intend to teach.

VI. Sarah Marshall Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200.

VII. Mary M. Johnson Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $200.

VIII. Joseph E. Gillingham Scholarships. Four scholarships of the annual value of $200 each "for meritorious students."

IX. Isaac Thorne Johnson Scholarship. One scholarship of the annual value of $225 available for a student of Wilmington College or a member of Wilmington (Ohio) Yearly Meeting of Friends.

X. Jacob P. Jones Scholarships, amounting to $1500 annually. Usually these will be awarded in sums of $150 each, and in return for them certain academic duties may be required of the beneficiaries.

XI. Jacob P. Jones Scholarships. Eight scholarships of the annual value of $100 each.

XII. Caspar Wistar Memorial Scholarship. A scholarship of $250 is annually available, preferably for sons of parents engaged in Christian service, including secretaries of Young Men's Christian Associations, or students desiring preparation for similar service in America or other countries.

XIII. Louis Jaquette Palmer Memorial Scholarship. This Scholarship of $250 is awarded on application, preferably to a member of the Freshman Class, who in the opinion of a committee representing the donors and the President of the College shall give evidence of possessing the qualities of leadership and constructive interest in student and community welfare which his friends observed in Louis Jaquette Palmer of the Class of 1894.

XIV. J. Kennedy Moorhouse Memorial Scholarship, $300. The scholarships named on this and the preceding page are permanent foundations. In addition, the New York Alumni maintain a Freshman scholarship of two hundred dollars ($200) for competition in the New York metropolitan district.

LOAN FUND

A loan fund to the annual amount of $4,500 has been placed by the Board of Managers at the service of deserving students other than members of the Freshman Class who may require financial assistance during their college course. Further information concerning this fund may be obtained from the President of the College.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU

FELLOWSHIPS

The Clementine Cope Fellowship, of the annual value of $700, may be awarded by the Faculty to the best qualified applicant from the Senior Class. He is required to spend the succeeding year in study at some American or foreign university approved by the Faculty.

With the remaining funds from the Clementine Cope Foundation there may be appointed one or more Teaching Fellows, with or without specific duties at Haverford College; or a second Cope Fellow may be appointed with a stipend of $400 or $500, as the residue of the Fund may permit.

Graduate Fellowships. Eight $600 fellowships covering all charges for board and tuition, with lodging free, offered primarily to the graduates of other Friends' colleges in the United States with permission to study for the Master's degree in any department of Haverford College which may be selected, provided the proposed schedule of study is approved by the Faculty Committee on Advanced Degrees (see page 88).

PRIZES

All prizes awarded in books are marked with appropriate bookplates. As soon as possible after the award a list of standard books, from which selection is to be made, should be submitted for approval to the head of the department awarding the prize. Books selected from the approved list may then be ordered through the College Office or elsewhere. The College grants an average discount of ten per cent on prize books, and supplies the bookplates.

All essays submitted in competition for prizes should be deposited with the Registrar under assumed names, with a sealed envelope containing the writer's real name, before May 1st.

LECTURESHIPS

HAVERFORD LIBRARY LECTURES

The income of $10,000, received in 1894 from the estate of Mary Farnum Brown, is available by the terms of the gift "to provide for an annual course or series of lectures before the Senior Class of the College, and other students, on the Bible, its history and literature, and as way may open for it, upon its doctrine and its teaching."

THOMAS SHIPLEY LECTURES ON ENGLISH LITERATURE

The sum of $5,000, presented in 1904 by Samuel R. Shipley, in memory of his father, Thomas Shipley, constitutes the Thomas Shipley Fund. The income of this fund is ordinarily to be used "for lectures on English literature."

SOCIETIES

A Young Men's Christian Association, organized in 1879, has a membership embracing nearly the whole student body. It holds meetings on Wednesday evenings. These meetings are addressed by prominent speakers from outside the College or by members of the Faculty. The work of the association includes a variety of outside activities, such as boys' work in Preston and Ardmore, Sunday evening discussion groups, and the annual campaign in College for contributions to charity.

The Liberal Club is an organization the object of which is to interest men in current problems. Its members try to secure a few well-chosen speakers to address the Club on subjects in the fields of government, economic and social conditions, literature, and art. All meetings are open to the College.

The Scientific Society is an organization with membership drawn from the Faculty and students, having for its object the promotion of interest in general science.

The Radio Club is composed of students interested in radio, either from a technical or a practical viewpoint.

The Chemistry Club, including in its membership candidates for Honors and for advanced degrees in chemistry, affords an opportunity of maintaining contact with recent advances of chemistry by discussion of subjects selected from current chemical journals and by trips to industrial chemical plants in the vicinity of Philadelphia.

The Classical Club is composed of members of the Faculty, students, alumni, and others, who are interested in the life and literature of the Greeks and Romans. A Latin play is given every year, and monthly meetings are held for discussions and addresses.

The English Club, membership in which is limited to Faculty, Seniors, and Juniors, promotes the informal discussion of literary topics.

The Press Club is an organization for those who are especially interested either in journalism as a profession or in securing wider publicity for Haverford College. Membership, which is by invitation, is limited to thirty, twenty or more to be members of the three upper classes and the remainder alumni.

A chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, Zeta of Pennsylvania, was established at the College in 1898.

The Founders Club, established in 1914, is an organization of alumni and undergraduates, to which upper classmen become automatically eligible if they attain a grade of at least B in class-room work and take part in a certain number of extra-curriculum activities.

The Cap and Bells Club, composed of both alumni and students, organizes and arranges the musical and dramatic productions of the College.

The Campus Club is an organization of the Faculty, students, and other friends of the College, for promoting the study and preservation of trees, shrubs, and birds on the College property.

Haverford College Athletics

1927-1928

Foreword

Haverford has had a good athletic year. The shining spot perhaps has been the splendid achievement of the Track team under Coach Haddleton, which won the Swarthmore Meet and defeated all opponents of our class in the Middle Atlantic States.

This success stands on individual merit and is measured by sure standards. One must reflect, however, upon the contribution which various conditions in the College have made to this splendid standard of athletic vigor, physical discipline and team morale. This background represents the coöperative stimulus running through all the strenuous athletic life of the college body.

Such background includes the careful organization and direction of the required Sophomore and Freshman athletic training by Mr. Evans and his helpers; the splendid coaching and successful seasons of Football, Soccer, Basketball, Baseball, Tennis and Cricket; the watchful oversight of the Athletic Executive Committee, Student Council and Athletic Cabinet; the enthusiasm of our President and many members of the Faculty and Alumni. All these have a contributing share in the meritorious standards set in the Middle Atlantic States Meet.

The general success of Football, Soccer and Basketball has been stimulating; the "all but won" baseball game of May 12th gave us a thrill; noteworthy stands have been made in Tennis, and Cricket has more than held its own.

The Athletic Director would express his appreciation to Manager Hoopes and Superintendent Johnston, who did such yeoman preparatory work, and to the Coaches and Students who have aided us in making progress during this college year.

JAMES A. BABBITT.

Summary of the Work of the Executive Athletic Committee

The first meeting of the year was held in the Union on October 5th. Dr. Comfort was elected Chairman, and I. H. Richardson, '28, was elected Secretary for the year. Mr. Hoopes made the Treasurer's report, which stated that the Association had operated at a net loss of $1700 in 1926-27. It was decided that the proceeds of the Drexel football game be given to the Walter Camp Memorial Fund. The proceeds amounted to $157.25. After a discussion of the Swarthmore football question, it was recommended that a committee consisting of Dr. Babbitt, Mr. Hoopes and Mr. H. T. Brown, Jr., should meet a Swarthmore representative committee, and an arrangement for a game in 1928 could be made if the committees felt it advisable. Dr. Babbitt was authorized to make arrangements for the coaching of basketball in 1928. A committee of Dr. Babbitt, Mr. Brown and Eric Renwick was appointed to make arrangements for coaching baseball in 1928 also. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the 1928 M. A. S. C. A. A. meet to be held at Haverford. The committee consisted of Dr. Babbitt, Chairman; Mr. Brown, Mr. Hoopes, Mr. Haddleton, Mr. R. J. Johnston and Manager Murphey. The Cricket awards were approved.

The second meeting of the year was held in the Union on December 6th. The elections and awards of the soccer team were approved. The football management recommended twenty-two men for letters, but the committee felt that the number was too great, and the recommendations were returned to the Committee on Football Awards for further consideration. Dr. Babbitt reported having met Dr. Mercer to consider football relations for 1928, and it was decided to postpone the game another year.

The third meeting was held in the Union on December 15th. The track schedule for 1928 was approved. A discussion of the purchase of bleachers was held, and it was decided to lay the matter on the table until the next Treasurer's report, when the feasibility of such a purchase could be determined. The Committee on Football Awards submitted another report, the number of letter men having been reduced from 22 to 20. This recommendation was accepted by the committee. A committee was appointed to make negotiations for a baseball coach for the season of 1928.

The fourth meeting was held in the Union on March 13th. The tennis and baseball schedules for 1928 were accepted. The shot-put records of J. Howard Morris which were made in indoor meets in New York City were recognized. The basketball elections and awards were approved by the committee. It was passed that the Association contribute $50 toward the support of the Intercollegiate Finance Committee's share of the 1928 Olympic Fund. The appointment of Archibald MacIntosh as assistant football coach for 1928 was approved.

The last meeting of the year was held in the Union on May 29th. Mr. Hoopes made the Treasurer's report, which showed the Association to have operated without loss during the year just closing. The soccer and football schedules for the season of 1928 were approved. The tennis and baseball elections and recommendations for awards were approved. A committee was appointed to consider the feasibility of changing the requirements for the winning of the Walton Cup, the former system of maximum total points having proved itself to be a detriment to the co-operation of the members of the team. The possibilities for a game with Swarthmore in football in 1928 were considered.

Secretary.

At the first meeting of the Cabinet an extensive discussion of the policy to be followed in awarding 'varsity letters in all sports was held. It was moved that the Cabinet recommend to the Executive Athletic Committee the purchase of temporary bleachers to the extent of 500 seats to accommodate the football crowds. The Cabinet decided to continue the work of looking after athletic trophies and formulating plans for the athletic building, and the President was empowered to appoint committees of the membership on these two interests.

At the second meeting a discussion of the trophy situation showed two outstanding needs; a banner case and two large wooden plaques for college athletic records. A recommendation for a tennis coach to the Executive Athletic Committee was approved, and a committee was appointed to submit a report of the needs of the team to the committee. It was decided to enlarge the block "H" to look approximately the same size as the present straight "H," and such a step was taken through the Executive Committee. It was felt that nothing could be done about swimming at present.

At the third meeting it was decided that the two most valuable banners should be protected and the rest hung up in the gym, and that the pictures of past teams should be grouped and pictures from now on paneled. President Stokes offered to donate silver plates for the top of each record plaque, and steps were to be taken to get the plaques started. Dr. Babbitt asked that the Cabinet think over ways of creating about Haverford a more generous spirit toward athletics and athletic needs.

At the fourth meeting Mr. Evans presented a plan for closer co-operation between the Physical Training Department and the Intramural League, which included the appointment of a Student Manager and the giving of more credit for participation in the league than is now allowed. The plan was approved. Dr. Babbitt announced the completion of an extensive piece of work in getting together reports from other colleges as to just what kind of athletic buildings they had. The site which seemed best for our building was next to the Chemistry Laboratory on the present lower tennis courts. The cost was estimated at about $100,000. The purpose was to house during the winter and early spring all the sports except basketball, for which there would then be adequate provision in the present gym. With definite facts and figures to work on, it is hoped that the Athletic Building will soon be a reality.

B. H. Tripp, '29, was elected President of the Cabinet for 1928-29.

There were two outstanding features to each meeting. The first was the frank and free discussion and interchange of opinion on all interests of an athletic nature, which is the real purpose of the Cabinet. The second feature was the series of excellent refreshments provided at each meeting by Dr. and Mrs. Babbitt and greatly enjoyed by all those present.

Respectfully submitted,

HERBERT K. ENSWORTH, '29,

Secretary.

Financial Year

The Athletic Association's financial year of 1927-28 closes with a balance of $795.72 as against a balance of $717.45 at the closing of accounts a year ago. In the June, 1927, Treasurer's Report it was noted that the Association had operated at a loss of about $1700 for the year. Since June, 1927, however, the College has turned proceeds of the Skating Pond for 1925-26 to the Athletic Association, and the present report is benefited by the receipts of the Skating Pond for a two-year period, 1925-26 and 1926-27, amounting to $2809.54 and included as general gate receipts. Half this amount should be credited to the preceding year, with the result that the majority of the $1700 operating loss of 1926-27 would be shifted to the present account.

Special expenses during the year now closing include $350 for bleachers to seat 540 people, and $157.25 to complete Haverford's contribution toward the Walter Camp Memorial Gate at Yale. The increase in expenses in three departments is directly traceable to certain factors: Football, the introduction of the Amherst game; Soccer, the Penn State and Cornell trips; and Track, the sending of five representatives to the I. C. A. A. A. Meet at Cambridge.

None of the departments of sport have paid their own way. Basketball, with a not altogether successful playing season, is the only sport to have approached an even break financially, its net loss being $37.87. Student dues, Skating Pond income, and the sale of Season Athletic Tickets continue as the important sources of income to cover departmental deficits.

The Season Athletic Tickets enjoyed a satisfactory sale for 1927-28 and should continue to be in demand on the strength of 1928-29 schedules already arranged.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. HOOPES,
Graduate Manager.

Sixteenth Annual Track and Field Meet of the Middle Atlantic States' Collegiate Athletic Association

The Sixteenth Annual Track and Field Meet was held on Walton Field, Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., on Friday, May 18, and Saturday, May 19, 1928. New records were established in five events; namely, 440-yard dash, 880-yard run, one mile run, two mile run and javelin throw. The Association's record in the 120-yard high hurdles was tied.

New York University repeated its victory of 1927 winning the championship and team prize with a total of $60\frac{1}{2}$ points, its representatives scoring in all events except the two mile run and the high jump. Haverford was second for the fourth successive year, totaling 41 points. Swarthmore took third place with 25 points.

A Freshman Medley Relay of $1\frac{7}{8}$ miles, which was placed on the program as an experiment, the result not counting in the team totals, was won by Haverford's 1931 team.

Seventeen of twenty member colleges were represented in the competition.
